The Secretary to Government,

Educational Department.

Sir,

In the enclosed copy of their letter, dated 26th April 1902, the Archbishop of Pondicherry and certain other Bishops belonging to the Society of Foreign Missions, Paris, request that the privileges granted to the Jesuit and the Mill Hill professors in G.Os. Nos. 272, Educational and 77, Educational, dated 30th April 1896 and 15th February 1901 respectively be accorded to the members of their Society. They have sent the X X to be kindly enclosed certificate and judging from the course of returned. : studies prescribed by the society as shown in the certificate, I am of opinion that its members have as much claim as the Mill Hill professors to their work in the cause of education receiving due recognition at the hands of Government. I beg to state further that St. Joseph's College, Cuddalore and St. Michael's College, Coimbatore are under the management of members of their Society, and the success achieved by these institutions may be taken as indicating the fitness of the members for the privilege sought. I beg therefore to recommend that all European members of the Society of Foreign Missions, Paris, who are certified to have completed the full course prescribed by their Society may, like the Jesuit and the Mill professors, be ranked as equal to trained Licentiates in Teaching. If this recommendation is approved, the necessary addition may be made to Article 5, Chapter II of the Educational Rules. A draft notification is submitted for approval and publication in the Fort Saint George Gazette.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

J. R. Rao

To

The Honourable Mr. G. H. Stuart, M.A.,

Director of Public Instruction,

Madras.

Sir,

We the undersigned have the honour to submit the following to your kind consideration.

1. The Society of Foreign Missions of Paris began its work in India in 1777 and since then its members have been continually at work in the various districts of the Madras Presidency including Bangalore, Mysore and Coorg. They minister to about 300,000 Catholics out of which 250,464 are in the British Territory.

2. The Diocesan authorities have always considered as one of their chief duties to provide for the primary as well as the higher education of their Christian people. At the present day the said Society possesses three second grade colleges at Bangalore, Cuddalore and Coimbatore with boarding houses attached thereto.

Bearing in our minds and cherishing in our hearts the noble examples set before us at the very beginning of the last century by the illustrious able Dubois a member of our Society we have always considered it a sacred duty to instil into the hearts of our students respect and love for the ruling powers. We are fully convinced that the piety and sound knowledge are means the best calculated to bring up useful citizens and loyal subjects of the British rule.

3. We therefore approach and request the Director of Public Instruction to grant to the members of the Society of Foreign Missions of Paris the favour already granted to the Jesuit Fathers and to the members of the Society of St. Joseph Mill Hill Madras.

4. We beg to submit herewith a certificate of the course of studies followed by the members of the said Society. Though many never thought to take their academical degrees as they were intending to take up Mission work alone still they have proved efficient and successful professors as it may be seen by the success already obtained in the existing colleges.

The programme of studies they have followed the thorough

5. We therefore beg the Director of Public Instruction to be so kind as to rank as equal to trained Licentiate in teaching such members of the Society of Foreign Missions of Paris whom we shall approve of and appoint as Principals, Headmasters of or Professors in the Colleges of our respective Dioceses.

Sir,

Your most obedient servants,
