Inspecting agency.

Recording letter from the Director of Public Instruction on the insufficiency of the present ---.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

From the Hon'ble Mr. G. H. STUART, M.A., Director of Public Instruction, Madras, to the Secretary to Government, Educational Department, dated 21st July 1902, No. Cl. 57.

I have the honour to make the following remarks on paragraph 21 of Mr. Hewett's letter read in G.O., No. 678, Educational, dated 21st November 1901, regarding the inspecting agency.

(1) The abolition of the primary examination boards and the conducting of the primary examination at each school separately through the inspecting agency will necessitate a considerable increase in the number of sub-assistant inspectors. As I have stated in my letter, No. Cl. 7, dated 30th January 1902, I consider that the number should be increased from 64 to 120. There are at present nine assistant inspectors and sanction has been given for the employment of one more. With an addition of two, making a total of twelve, this agency will for the present be sufficiently strong. The number of inspectors is at present four: one more should be appointed to inspect training and European schools.

(2) For girls' schools there are now three inspectresses and six sub-assistants. A class of assistant inspectresses should be created for girls' schools similar to the assistant inspectors for boys' schools. In my letter quoted above, I have proposed three assistant inspectresses in addition to the present staff of six sub-assistants. It is not at present necessary to increase the number of inspectresses. I have since proposed that the number of sub-assistants of girls' schools should be increased to seven, the increase to be met from the additional number of sub-assistants proposed for boys' schools.
