OFFICE OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE
(Land Revenue),

Madras, 18th July 1902.

The Hon'ble Mr. F.A. Nicholson.

Mr. C.H. Mounsey.

Reference, B. No. 1307, dated 18th July 1902.

In April 1901 a furlough vacancy arose in the post of Second Assistant on Rs. 300 in the Land Revenue Department of the Board's office, and M.R.Ry. S. Krishnamachariar B.A. Manager of the Office of the Inspector-General of Police, who had -- already held the appointment of Second Assistant for three months and was strongly recommended by Mr. H.A. Stuart, the then Inspector-General of Police, was appointed thereto. M.R.Ry. S. Krishnamachariar had not however passed the Revenue Test, Higher, and unless he is exempted either temporarily or permanently from -- this Test, the fact will be a bar to his continuance in his -- present appointment, which has now become permanently vacant -- for which M.R.Ry. S. Krishnamachariar has eminently fitted, and in which he amply deserves confirmation. M.R.Ry. S. Krishnamachariar's failure to pass the test in question does not appear to have been due to any neglect on his part, but to the fact that a considerable part of his service has been spent in -- special duties which left him no leisure to study for examinations. From 16th February 1891 to 31st March 1893 he was employed as Personal Assistant to the then Census Superintendent, Mr. H.A. Stuart, I.C.S., and subsequently from 1st April 1893 to 28th February 1897 he held a similar post under the same officer as Editor of District manuals. In March 1897 he was entertained in the Board's Office as a clerk on Rs. 125 and his services -- were utilized in the preparation of the 1900 Edition of the -- Board's Standing Orders- a fact which has been acknowledged in the preface to that work as well as in Board's proceedings, No. 278, dated 13th November 1899. The nature of the work he was engaged on during this period as well as the work subsequently allotted to him as Second Assistant in the Board's office is a guarantee that he possesses a sound working knowledge of the Standing Orders as well as of the Revenue Acts and Regulations the two main subjects for the Revenue Higher Test. In view of these facts and of the inconvenience to which the office would be put if he were called upon to take leave and study for the examination, the Board resolves to recommend to Government his permanent exemption from the Revenue Higher Test.
