Honoured Sir,

I, S. Chidambaram Pillai, Attender, Deputy Tahsildar & Officer in charge in the Simharich Taluk, most respectfully beg to request that your honour will be pleased to take the following lines into your honour's kind consideration and favourable orders.

2. I have passed the Lower Secondary Examination in the Andhra Pradesh in the year 1895, and have been working as a copyist for some time and again as an attender & ag. clerk.

in the Stationary Sub Magistrate's deputy Sahibdar's and Sahiboffices. I had continued my studies up to 11 hours daily but was prevented from continuing further and qualify-myself for higher appointments on account of domestic ^{inconveniences}.
I have ~~however~~ improved my knowledge so far as is required for a clerk's place or Rs 15 in the Superior Service.

3. The acting Sahibdar of Kallakurichi Sahibdar B.D.
J. Kuvagesa Pillai Svergal B.D. under whom I had served on several occasions deemed just that I deserved an exemption from the Examination rules for holding an appointment or Rs 15 as much as I had been discharging the duties of a clerk and given him as well as other immediate Superior officers entire satisfaction in the discharge of my duties and accordingly addressed the Divisional officer for my exemption. Thereon the Collector Mrs. E. A. Elwin Esq. was pleased to direct me to apply to Government in the Educational Department if I liked, for the exemption prayed for (vide collector's Proceedings No. 1952 dated 18-11-04.

1905)

In pursuance of the above orders I beg leave to submit this application with a request that your honors will be so pleased as to recommend my exemption.

which I have obtained from several officers under whom I served are herewith submitted in original & or your honour's kind perusal.
This is the specimen of my hand writing.

For which act of kindness and charity I shall in duty bound ever pray for your honour's long life and prosperity.

I beg to remain
most assuredly,
Your most obedient & humble servant
S. P. Chidambaram Pillai.

Honoured Sir,
I beg respectfully for favorable consideration to submit the application dated 27-5-02 from attend S. Chidambaram Pillai.
The applicant very well acquainted with all the details appertaining to Deputy Kalaidas's office including magisterial work, and is by all means more useful than a regular well paid clerk.

He is very intelligent, and has good comprehensive power, and is indeed very hard working. He deserves consideration for all his past good work, but there is no scope for his promotion, he being an unpassed candidate.
He has, however, already received some fair education. In consideration of this and his usefulness, I beg to request that he may be recommended for exemption from Examination rules, so as to be enabled to hold his position carrying a pay of

Rs 15. In out of the way places like Kallakurachi, it is extremely difficult to procure men of the applicant's stamp for a pay of Rs 7 unless they have some encouragement.
