To

The Secretary to Government,

Educational Department,

Madras.

Sir,

I have the honour to forward for the orders of Government a petition from P. Subbarao, typist in my Office, in which he asks that he may be allowed either to appear ~~for~~ for the Translation Test, Lower Grade, or to be declared Exempted from passing the Upper Secondary Examination.

84p T
84p T
The circumstances of his case have been fully set forth in my letter dated 29th May 1900, R C No. 634 of 1900, and B & G. I have nothing further to add. He was in G. O., dated 7th July 1900, No. 270, Educational, Exempted from passing the Upper Secondary Examination, but this exemption has hitherto been understood to refer solely to his employment as typist in my Office, and not to be General. He was recently offered an appointment in the Salt and Abkari Department by the Deputy Commissioner, Salt Abkari and Customs Department, Northern Division, but that Officer afterwards cancelled his offer on the ground that the Exemption quoted did not cover other appointments than that of typist.

I have the honour to be,

Your most obedient Servant,

For Collector.

To

The Secretary to Government,

Educational Department,

Fort Saint George,

(Through the Collector of Kistna, Masulipatam).

The most humble petition of POLURI SUBBA RAO, Typist, Collector's Office, Kistna District, Masulipatam.

Most Respectfully Showeth,

That he was entertained as Typist first in the Chief Secretariat, Public Department, in April 1896 with fair prospects of confirmation in a post of Rs. 23/ had he remained there as explained in the Collector's letter RC No. 634 of 00, dated 29th May 1900 B & G

2. That with a view of bettering his prospects he took the 4th Vernacular Clerk's post (Typist) sub-protem on Rs. 30/ in the Kistna Collectorate in July 1898 with full assurance that he would be confirmed in the same ere long but unfortunately he was at first temporarily exempted from the operation of the Examination rules and finally on the kind representation of the Collector, he was permanently exempted from the Examination rules (G. O., No. 270, Educational, dated 7th July 1900).

3. That owing to the Government Orders issued subsequently to his entertainment in the Kistna Collectorate, he was also required to have passed the Intermediate Test in Type-Writing and

and consequently he was to his great misfortune confirmed in only Rs.20/ appointment-A FALL OF RS.10/-IN HIS MONTHLY INCOME.

4. That owing to his reduced income, he was obliged to seek employment in some other Departments but the G. O. exempting him from passing the Upper Secondary Examination being interpreted to apply only to his entertainment as Typist, he was disappointed in his attempts and is now constrained to intrude upon the precious moments of Government.

5. That in December 1896, he appeared for the Upper Secondary Examination, -his general register Number being 117- in which he was plucked only for want of the minimum marks in Translation. A kind reference to the failure list published in the Fort Saint George Gazette dated 11th May 1897 will reveal the fact. Since the Upper Secondary Examination was allowed to be passed piece-meal upto 1894, the Collector also in his letter quoted above recommended his being allowed to appear for Translation only to complete the Upper Secondary Examination but the Government was not pleased to take up this point into consideration.

6. Petitioner therefore most humbly prays that the Government will either graciously extend the permanent exemption granted to the petitioner to apply to the ordinary appointments of other Departments as a special favour IN COMMEMORATION OF HIS GRACIOUS MAJESTY THE KING EMPEROR'S CORONATION or to allow him to appear for Translation Test (Lower) to complete the test required for the Upper Secondary Examination

With this humble and respectful representation, the humble Petitioner begs respectfully to remain,

Government's most humble and obedient Servant,

Masulipatam,

29th July 1902.

C. No. 1152. From the Collector of Kistna R. no 822 & 1-8-02

SUBJECT.

Exemption from the examination rules.

Please see the notes in G.O. no. 270 Edl. dated 7th July 1900. It was in consideration of certain special circumstances that P. Subba Rao was exempted from passing the Upper Secondary examination for employment as a type-writing clerk in the Collector's office. And there is no ground for a general exemption. His request may therefore be refused. The Collector also simply submits the application for orders.
