MEMORANDUM.

No. 186.

With reference to G O., No. 400, Educational, dated 12th July 1902, the Accountant-General is requested to report whether Mr. Nelson is entitled to any, and, if so what, allowance during the period of his leave. The terms of his re-engagement in May 1901 will be found in the papers recorded in G.O., No. 447, Educational, dated 12th August 1901.

H. A. STUART,

16th July 1902.

To the Accountant-General.

From C. E. CRAWLEY, Esq., Officiating Accountant-General, Madras, to the Secretary to Government, Educational Department, dated 25th July 1902, No. G./3924.

With reference to the Madras Government memorandum No. 186, Educational, dated 16th July 1902, I have the honour to state that as the Secretary of State sanctioned the service rendered by Mr. Nelson after the expiration of his first agreement, i.e., from 1st May 1896 being held to be qualifying for pension, his service from 1st May 1896 qualifies also for leave under the Indian Service Leave Rules, under note 2, article 227, Civil Service Regulations, and that during the leave on medical certificate granted to him from the commencement of the Law College vacation, viz., 28th April 1902, he is entitled to an absentee allowance of Rs. 608-4-2 per mensem.

From R. A. NELSON, Esq., M.A., LL.M., Barrister-at-Law, Principal, Law College, Madras, to the Secretary to Government, Educational Department (through the Director of Public Instruction, Madras), dated Crown Hotel, Harrowgate, 26th June 1902.

I have the honour to request that the Government will be pleased to grant me four months' leave with allowances on medical certificate from July 28th, 1902, the date on which I am due back in Madras.

Under the terms of my re-engagement of last year I am entitled to leave with allowances, and although I did not wish to avail myself of leave yet awhile, I am unfortunately obliged to ask for it (for the first time during more than eleven years' service) and the medical board at the India Office has recommended that it should be granted. I am also requested by that office to apply to the Government of Madras for a "leave and pay certificate".

29th July 1902.

A. T. PRINGLE,
Asst. Secretary to Government.

A.D.H.-119.

Mr. R. A. Nelson is eligible for leave on medical certificate for four months under article 369 of the Civil Service Regulations, 3rd edition, with effect from 26th July 1902, the date following that on which the vacation of the Madras Law College ended and he may be permitted to prefix the vacation to the leave under article 311-A of the regulations.

If this is allowed, the order of the Secretary of State (G.O., No. 400, Educational, dated 12th July 1902) converting the vacation into leave on medical certificate and extending it by four months will have to be modified.

The necessary last pay certificate will be issued on receipt of orders upon this application.

With reference to my letter of the 20th ultimo, I have to inform you that it has since been decided that the grant of four months' leave on medical certificate with effect from the 28th July to Mr. R. A. Nelson will not involve conversion of the college vacation into leave on medical certificate.

If a leave and pay certificate in accordance with the terms of my letter above cited has already been despatched, it will be necessary to send an amended certificate.

ORDER—No. 477, Educational, dated 14th August 1902.

Sir C. J. Lyall's letter, No. J. & P. 1106 of the 23rd July 1902, will be communicated to the Accountant-General with the request that the necessary last pay certificate may now be forwarded to Mr. Nelson.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 477, EDUCATIONAL,
DATED 14TH AUGUST 1902.

[SUBJECT.—Mr. Nelson's application for leave.]

G.O., No. 400, Educational, dated 12th July 1902.

After issue please put up Mr. Nelson's agreement. I believe he is not entitled to any leave with allowances, and in that case the full pay will be available for his locum tenens if the pay is attached to the appointment and not personal to Mr. Nelson.

H. A. STUART—12-7-02.

The agreement under which Mr. Nelson continues in service at present will be found in G.O., No. 636, Educational, dated 10th December 1900. The terms offered by him with the exception of that lettered (b) were recommended to, and accepted by, the Secretary of State in his despatch printed in G.O., No. 447, Educational, dated 12th August 1901. Under these terms Mr. Nelson can have leave with allowances only two years from date of re-engagement, i.e., two years from 1st May 1901. It seems clear therefore that Mr. Nelson cannot draw any allowances during his present leave. It does not appear, however, that full pay can be given to his locum tenens. The appointment is one which has to be made by the Secretary of State and the local Government can only put in a person to officiate in it. This will not entitle the officiating officer to more than half the minimum pay or Rs. 500—please see the Accountant-General's remarks on page 2 of the notes stitched with G.O., No. 59, Educational, dated 4th February 1902. There seems, however, to be nothing to prevent the Secretary of State being moved to grant the full pay available.

P. T. THARYAN—12-7-02.

The proper course is to refer to Accountant-General for remarks. The Secretary of State has absolute power to decide whether Mr. Nelson is to have allowances or not—in other words, he may depart from the terms of the agreement if he thinks fit. But probably Mr. Nelson's present leave will be treated as extraordinary and will not carry any allowances. Next mail will, it is probable, bring out a despatch on the subject.

A. T. PRINGLE—12-7-02.

No present orders.

H. A. STUART—14-7-02.

Memorandum No. 186, dated 16th July 1902.

From the Director of Public Instruction, No. T./6, dated 17th July 1902.

In the letter received from the India Office by the last mail it was stated that Mr. Nelson had the period of his vacation (28th April to 27th July) converted into leave on medical certificate and extended by four months. In the present application he asks for leave on medical certificate for four months from the 28th instant. The Accountant-General may be consulted as to whether there is any objection to his prefixing the vacation to the leave.

2. Mr. Nelson also asks for leave allowances. In regard to this, the Accountant-General's reply to memorandum No. 186 of the 16th instant may perhaps be awaited.
P. T. THARYAN—18-7-02.

I am inclined to refer this to the Accountant-General in continuation of the official memorandum.

A. T. PRINGLE—19-7-02.

Yes.

H. A. STUART—28-7-02.

The draft reference placed below may issue.

P. T. THARYAN—28-7-02.

A. T. PRINGLE—29-7-02.

From the Accountant-General, No. G. 3924, dated 25th July 1902.
" " " A.D.H. 119, dated 4th August 1902.

The Accountant-General reports that Mr. Nelson can draw a leave allowance of Rs. 508-4-2 per mensem, but that the allowance should begin on the 28th April 1902 unless the order of the Secretary of State in G.O., No. 400, Educational, dated 12th July 1902, is modified. If it is modified and the leave is granted from 26th July, he can draw full pay till the 25th idem and at Rs. 608-4-2 from the following day. He can prefix the vacation to the leave.

2. Submitted that the leave may now be granted from the 26th July and gazetted, and the Secretary of State informed accordingly.

P. T. THARYAN—6-8-02.

A. T. PRINGLE—7-8-02.

H. A. STUART—7-8-02.

You are altering the order of the Secretary of State if you do that. The leave is granted already; you have to ask the Secretary of State to alter his order so as to exclude the vacation from the medical leave.

J. T[OMSON]—8-8-02.

Draft despatch to Secretary of State.

H. A. STUART—11-8-02.

From the Secretary, Judicial and Public Department, No. 1106, dated 23rd July 1902.

The Secretary of State having excluded the vacation from the leave which His Lordship granted to Mr. Nelson, no further action is now necessary except communicating Sir C. J. Lyall's letter to the Accountant-General. The draft placed below may therefore issue. The notification may also issue as altered.
