G.O., No. 249, Educational, dated 28th April 1902.

READ—also the following paper :—

From the Hon'ble Mr. G. H. STUART, M.A., Commissioner for Government Examinations, to the Secretary to Government, Educational department, dated Madras, 8th August 1902, No. 133/1 D.

With reference to G.O., No. 249, Educational, dated 28th April 1902, I have the honour to state that the Senior Commercial course of the London Chamber of Commerce is very wide and comprehensive in its scope, and candidates who have completed this course and received the “Higher Commercial certificate” must possess attainments and qualifications, general and special, much higher than those that Matriculates and F.A.'s can ordinarily lay claim to in this country. There can be no objection, therefore, to the recognition of the examination referred to as a qualification for Government employment under article 2 of the Public Service notification. I do not know, however, of any particular appointments in the public service for which this examination can fitly be prescribed under article 5 of the same notification.

A draft notification is submitted for approval.

ORDER—No. 500, Educational, dated 22nd August 1902.

The Senior Commercial examination of the London Chamber of Commerce will be recognized as equivalent to the Upper Secondary or the Matriculation examination and the following notification published in the Fort St. George Gazette :—

Ed. C. Parthasarathy.
