3rd June 1902.

The Director General of Stores, India Office.

With reference to the tender enclosed herewith for school desks and furniture, kindly note that the price quoted includes delivery to the London or Liverpool, but if we are favoured with the order, we should like to know at the time the order is placed at which of these ports you will have delivery.

Kindly also note that to save transportation charges and avoid breakage in shipment, this furniture is always shipped in pieces, but the method of construction is so simple that a child can put the pieces together. Under these circumstances, you will understand that the price quoted does not include transportation.

We are &c.,
(Sd) Buck and Hickman.

Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 6th instant. We have pleasure in giving you a guarantee with reference to the supply of school desks as per, our letter of the 3rd June 1902, as follows:-

That the materials are sound, and complete in every particular for the erection of the desks in accordance with the schedule of our tender, dated 3rd June 1902.

That we will replace, free of charge, any portion found to be deficient, or damaged, on arrival at its destination in India
