Sir,

May W In Educational Notification No. 52, dated 27th May 1902, published in Fort Saint George Gazette of 3rd June 1902, four new subjects have been added to the Revenue Special Tests viz.,

- (1) The Excise Manual
- (2) The Sea Customs Manual
- (3) The Income Tax Manual
- (4) The Special Fund Code.

2. These four subjects form a very considerable addition to the curriculum of the Special Tests. The four Manuals now newly prescribed deal with subjects of no small intricacy, and being special branches of work, they are not matters with which an ordinary clerk is necessarily familiar. It is, therefore, reasonable that a full year's notice of the addition of these subjects should be given, but the actual notice has been only 4 months.

3. Of the Manuals in which examination is to be held the Sea Customs and Excise Manuals, though printed, have not yet been published and are not available for sale to the public. It is, therefore impossible for candidates to study these Manuals, unless they happen to be in offices to which the ~~happen~~ Manuals have been supplied. Even then only one or two copies are available.

4. The passing of the Revenue Special Test is a most critical matter for clerks in District Offices, and it is very necessary that they shall be allowed a fair chance.

5. I therefore strongly recommend that the revised curriculum be postponed until 1903.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Dumendra Bai
for Collector.
