Rule 1 of the Public Service Rules.

Revenue Department

20 Under Secy.

The names of some of the persons now employed on probation in the office and who cannot be confirmed because of their not having passed the educational test prescribed for the post, the date of their employment and their total service are given in the subjoined statement.

|   | Names                 | Date of employment | Service |        |
|---|-----------------------|--------------------|---------|--------|
|   |                       |                    | years   | months |
| 1 | A. Govindaswami Naidu | 4-12-98            | 3       | 9      |
| 2 | P. Somasundaram Naidu | 13-4-99            | 3       | 4      |
| 3 | Abdul Latif           | 6-12-00            | 1       | 9      |
| 4 | Dayath Hussain        | 18-4-99            | 3       | 4      |

The first two know how to read and write Telugu and Tamil respectively, are very hardworking and have been very useful as messengers. The third was holding an appointment in the office of the D. G. of Ordnance for about four years, the last appointment held by him being that of jemadar of peons. He is a good and intelligent peon, understands and talks English but does not know how to read it.

His claim to exemption is short. He was in Govt. service before the rule was made to come into force: but it was in the rule 8 Sept. 1881

He also knows Hindustani.
The fourth knows how to read and write Tamil and Hindustani and understands a little English.

He is very obedient and is now <sup>one of</sup> the Secy's house peons.

These peons have been tried for a long time and found suitable. It is submitted that the Educational Dept. may be requested volly. to sanction their permanent exemption so that they may be confirmed in the appointments which they have been holding for a long time.

See The exemption was not

RAV
8/5/91 Earlier sought for as a proposal to make some of them messengers instead of peons was started. Then

2540 NO 156 R, 29-9-02.

one many objections however to this proposal which is really only exemption in another form. It is the four peons named above are fully efficient: & I think may it is submitted formally to exempt them. It is understood that the primary school, the best prescribed is shortly to be abolished.
