The order has been despatched. With reference to the H.M.'s query it is submitted that in G.O. No 387 dated 1st May 1902, H.M. wanted reports about expenditure not only from the special grants but also on all new schemes.
The item mentioned by H.M. is one of the new ~~new~~ schemes.

See vide pages 10 & 11 of the proceedings.

the application of the committee of the Kumbakonam college hostel for the grant of Rs.25,000 which was promised by Government. A notification authorising the Collector to acquire the site has been published in the Port St. George gazette.

(5) Establishment of new medical schools. Pending the opening of the Royapuram medical school, the expenditure on the hospital assistant department of the Medical College should be entered in columns 3 and 4, and the Director should telegraph to the Superintendent of the Medical School at Vizagapatam, desiring an immediate reply to his enquiries regarding the expenditure incurred in July and August; the delay in furnishing the information is unsatisfactory.
