The Secretary to Government,

Educational Department.

Sir,

I have the honour, in the circumstances stated below, to request that you will be so good as to obtain the permission of Government to provide in the budget estimates for 1903-04 for an additional assistant on Rs. 40 per mensem and for an increase of one rupee to the pay of each of the three peons, in the Government School of Commerce, Calicut.

2. The Headmaster reports that adequate and satisfactory provision does not exist for teaching English Composition and Handwriting and that the present staff of four teachers is unable to find time to correct the exercises of students of the Book-keeping, Shorthand, Typewriting and Composition classes and to hold all the evening classes at one and the same time.

Since the staff was added to in 1899 by the appointment of a third assistant the strength of the several classes in the school ^{has} steadily advanced as shown below:-

	July 1899.	July 1900.	July 1901.	July 1902.
Book-keeping	25	51	89	110
Commercial Correspondence	22	27	47	63
Banking	11	19	14	37
Commercial Geography	12	20	26	33
Short-hand	37	47	82	92
Type-writing	38	40	49	62
Total	145	204	307	397

The above figures show very clearly the necessity for the appointment of an additional assistant.

3. Two of the peons are in receipt of Rs. 6 per mensem while the third or the last peon receives Rs. 5 a month. The Headmaster reports that these rates of pay are low compared with those that obtain in other offices, that on this account the peons do not remain in their posts for any length of time and that considerable difficulty is experienced in securing the services of qualified men when vacancies occur. The increases proposed seem reasonable and may be allowed.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

G. H. Stuart

Director of Public Instruction.
