[C No 1013] from Messrs. V. Kalpanarama Aiyar & Co. d 16.9.1902.

Asst. Secy.

Messrs. V. Kalpanarama Aiyar and Co the publishers of the "Indian Journal of Education" submit an application for 25 papers, addressed by them to the Govt of India. In another connection the firm was reported to be respectable. The journal itself is one of the oldest in Madras and has been under the editorship of several well-known educationists. An application for Educational papers addressed to this Govt was lately favourably entertained. Submitted that the application to the Govt. may be forwarded with the recommendation that only educational papers should be supplied. If approved the draft letter below may issue.
