Poongavanammal, late 3rd assistant, Government girls' school, Vellore, I have the honour to request that Government may be pleased to pass orders in the Educational Department on the recommendation contained in para. 3 of my letter to Government, Ref. on C. No 4765/2, dated 14th August 1902, to the effect that Poongavanammal be allowed the arrears of her first increment to render her eligible for an invalid pension of Rs. 2-9-2 and an invalid gratuity of Rs. 30 instead of an invalid gratuity of Rs. 60 to which alone she will be entitled if her first increment be not sanctioned.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

G. H. Stuart

Director of Public Instruction.

Copy of letter from the Director of Public Instruction, Ref. on C. no. 4765 of 9th September 1902.

3. The applicant's increments were withheld for no fault of hers, but through the mistake committed by an officer of the dept. by assuming to herself powers which the Head of the dept. alone can exercise under articles 43 & 46 of the Civil Service Regulations. The teacher, if she had been allowed to draw in the ordinary course, the increments to which she was under the rules entitled, would up to the date of her retirement have drawn from Govt. a sum of Rs. 935 more than she actually drew & have become eligible for a superannuation pension of Rs. 3-8-1 and an invalid gratuity of Rs. 30. Miss. Carr, however, recommends that the applicant be paid arrears only of the first increment from 1st September 1884 amounting to Rs. 211 & that she be allowed an invalid pension of Rs. 2-9-2; & an invalid gratuity of Rs. 30 & I beg to support the recommendation.

C. No. 1349

SUBJECT.

Payment of increments of pay in arrears.

Pinkavananimal's case is a hard one and is fully set forth in the Director's letter no 4765 dated 14th August 1902 which forms an enclosure to the current. It is submitted that the Director's recommendation that Pinkavananimal be paid the arrears of her first increment from 1st September 1884 amounting to Rs 211 may be accepted; it will make her eligible for an invalid pension of Rs 2-9-2 per mensem and gratuity of Rs 30.

But the A.G. has not had his say on the Director's proposal and a reference may perhaps be now made to him.

Should not the reference to A.G. be made in the Pension dept.?

A.P.

The question about the grant of increment in arrears is for settlement in the administrative department viz Educational. Even if Pension makes the reference to the A.G. the file will have
