Recommends for the favourable consideration of Government the application of Mr. S. K. Ramasamy Iyer, Barrister of this Court, for relaxation of rules in his favour for admissions to the Translation Higher and Civil Judicial Seats.

FURTHER PAPERS.

To,

The Chief Secretary to Government,
Judicial Department.

Sir,

I have the honor to recommend the petitioner's application for the favourable consideration of Government. His Service Register shows that he has been in Government Service for 19 years, that he has earned the confidence of Government and that he now holds a very responsible position, namely as Nazir of this Court for the last four years and a half. Should Government think fit to relax the rules in his favour, I do not think they will find a more deserving case.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most Obedt Servant
John Smith
Ag. Chief Judge.

To,

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-IN-COUNCIL,
FORT ST. GEORGE, MADRAS.

Through

His Honor the Chief Judge,
Court of Small Causes,
Madras.

May it please your Excellency,

The humble memorial of S.K. Ramaswamy Iyer, Nazir, Small Cause Court, Madras, respectfully sheweth:-

That the humble memorialist is at present the Nazir of the Madras Court of Small Causes on Rs. 70/- per mensem and has put in 19 years service, having been entertained in Government service on 23rd April 1883.

That he has passed the marginally

1. The Middle School Exn. noted examinations.
2. Precis. Higher.
3. Translation (lower).
4. Account Test (higher).

That the memorialist will not be eligible for further promotions under the rules now in force, if he does not qualify himself by passing the other special tests prescribed for higher appointments in the Judicial Department, Civil Branch.

That the Examination Rules now in force shuts out all admission to the Special Test Examinations in the case of candidates who have not passed the Matriculation or the Upper Secondary Examinations and the humble memorialist having passed only the Middle School Examination cannot qualify himself for further promotion. The same G.O. No. 571 Edl. dated 9th July 1895 reserves a wide discretion to the Government who relax the rules on the recommendation of the Head of the Department "in individual cases where proved merit might be regarded as making up for want of general test qualification".

That on the basis of the said G.O. the humble memorialist respectfully begs to place the case before the Government for consideration and for relaxation of rules in his favour for admission to the Special Test Examinations which would qualify him for the office of the Head Clerk of this Court. Among the examinations prescribed for that office the memorialist will have to pass only the Civil Judicial Test. To qualify for Interpreter's place he has to pass the Translation Higher, and he therefore prays that he may be allowed to go up for these two special tests, i-e., the Translation Higher and the Civil Judicial Tests. His testimonials, hereto attached, will shew that he has maintained a good character ever since his admission into the public service and that he is deserving of encouragement. He fully trusts this humble memorial will meet with success.

For which act of kindness the memorialist as in duty bound will ever pray.

Extract from the Service Register of S.K. Ramaswamiah, Head
Accountant, Court of Small Causes.

Ramaswamy Iyer was my Bench Clerk and gave me great satisfaction by the attention he paid to his duties and by his honesty. I wish his advancement in the service.

(Judge)

I fully endorse the views of Mr. Ponnusawmy Pillai Garu.

Ramaswamy Iyer was my Bench Clerk also for some time and gave every satisfaction. I wish him success.

(Judge)

I know Ramaswamy Iyer as a member of the establishment for 6 years while I was presiding in the Small Cause Court. I have a high opinion of his abilities and integrity and was glad to promote him and after I left the Court to recommend him to my successor for the office he now holds.

Madras, 27th February 1898.

I have known Mr. S.K. Ramaswamy Iyer for a long time. He was working with me for some time when I was a Judge in the Presidency Small Cause Court and I found him to be a very intelligent and zealous public servant and always attentive to his duties as an Interpreter whenever occasion required. I am satisfied that he is quite able to hold the post of an Interpreter and I shall be glad to hear of his advancement in life.

(Sd). P. Srinivasa Row,
City Civil Judge,
Madras.

The bearer of this Ramaswamy Iyer has been strongly recommended to me as to character.

There are however no vacancies in my office, I fear that he is an applicant as a Clerk at Salem I should be glad to learn that he is successful, as from the recommendation in his favor he is likely to give satisfaction.

My dear Shephard,

A Native friend of mine Ramaswamy Iyer is under an impression you can help him to a situation perhaps in Salem. He is a highly respectable man and is moreover related to your Manager a son-in-law. I believe perhaps a word to Maclean would be of service. He seems to have passed all the necessary tests.

Yours sincerely,

(Sd). J.H. Taylor.

My dear Wigram,

The bearer Ramaswamy Iyer is a very useful and respectable man whom I am desirous of serving. It is rumoured many vacancies are existing out of troubles and chances of these days; perhaps a word from you to Maclean might serve him.

I believe he will be a good and faithful officer.

Ever sincerely,

(Sd). J.H. Taylor.

C. No. _____, From the Chief Judge, Court of Small Causes, Dated 13-10- 1902.

Subject. Permission to appear for certain special tests.

S. K. Ramaswami Aiyar, Nazir of the Madras Small Causes Court, applies for permission to appear for the translation test, higher, and the Civil Judicial test. There appears to be no special ground for the grant of this concession. Orders are solicited.

20/10/12

We may accept Mr. Smith's recommendation, I think, but speak before if not.
