Mr. Stone, who was transferred from the Rajahmundry

College to the Teachers' College, Saidapet, arrived at Madras on the 7th July last and on the forenoon of that date assumed charge at Madras of his acting appointment of Principal of the Teachers' College from M.R.Ry.S.Mangesha Rau, the acting Vice-Principal in charge who was at the time in Madras as the College was then closed for the Midsummer vacation. I consulted the Accountant-General as to whether this transfer of charge at Madras instead of at head-quarters might be allowed without reference to Government, but that officer considers that the sanction of Government is necessary. I have the honour, therefore, to request that you will be so good as to move Government to approve of Mr.Stone's action.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

G. H. Stuart
Director of Public Instruction.
