Sir,

With reference to Memorandum No. 274, Educational, dated 18th instant, I have the honour to report that passed candidates are available in North Arcot. The District Superintendent of Police however reports that the applicant P. Srinivasa Raghava Aiyangar is a well educated young man, and writes English, Tamil and Telugu well which qualifications are extremely hard to find in clerks for his office, the records in which are in Tamil and Telugu.

2. I have personally seen the applicant and consider he will do very well for the office. I request that the Government will be pleased to accord sanction for the necessary exemption as a special case.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedt. servant,

for Ag. Insp. - Genl. of Police.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

C. No. 1539.

SUBJECT.

Exemption from Examin. rules.

Orders are solicited as to whether the exemption solicited may be granted. Passed candidates are not scarce in N. Arcot.

The Educational Department has of late been more lenient than formerly in the matter of exemptions and this is perhaps one result of it. There appears to be no special reason whatever for the exemption of the person recommended.
