C. No. 1501, From the D.P.I., Dated 7-10-1902.

subject. Increase in the staff of the Commercial school at Calicut.

The necessity for an additional assistant master seems to be clearly established. The only question is about the increase to the peons. One of the two peons at B and the peon at B5 may perhaps each get a rupee.

2. Inspite of G.O. no 579 of 20th September 1902 the Director has allowed the provision for the present increase to remain in the budget for 1903-04.

3. Financial may now be asked whether they would 29/10/12 accept the Director's proposals.

We may ask the Finl. Dept. to accept the proposals as in the prop. statement. As we are not trusting here to the head of the Dept., it is better, I think, not to clip a rupee here & there from the peons merely because it can easily be done with a stroke of the pen. The D.P.I. gives reasons for the increase in the last paragraph of his letter of the 13th ult., & I should say that they are good reasons. The peons are at Calicut.
