READ—the following paper:—

From the Hon'ble Mr. G. H. STUART, M.A., Director of Public Instruction, to the Secretary to Government, Educational department, dated Madras, 5th November 1902, Cur. No. 7927.

In G.O., No. 681, Educational, dated 21st November 1901, sanction was accorded for the appointment, for the current year, of a special lecturer in the Law College, on a salary of Rs. 250 per mensem, on the ground that, as long as students who joined under the old three years' system remained in the college, special arrangements should be made for their instruction. As the students who joined early in 1901 will remain in the college till the end of next year, it is necessary to continue the appointment till 31st December 1903. I have the honour, therefore, to request that sanction may be given for the continuance of the services of the special lecturer till the abovementioned date. Provision for the charge has been included in the budget estimate for next year now before Government.
