S. Ramachandra Aiyar.	Manager, District Police Office.	One year for the present but it is proposed to appoint him to a permanent post when one falls vacant later on.	Permanent.	This is the first application.	The applicant is a clerk in the Dt. Police Office, Salem, and has now been appointed as Insp. of Police in the Ganjam Agency. It is proposed to appoint him a manager in any Dt. Police Office, as all the Dt. Supts. under whom he has served speak very high of his qualifications. The Dy. Insp. - Genl. is of opinion that this clerk is well fitted to hold the post of a manager.	strongly recommended.

C. No. 1744.

SUBJECT.

Exemption from certain special tests.

The Inspector General of police strongly recommends the permanent exemption from certain special tests of S. Rama Chandra Aiyar, a clerk in the district police office at Salem and says that it is proposed to appoint him as the manager of a district police office as soon as a vacancy occurs since all the district superintendents under whom he has served speak very highly of his qualifications and since the Dy. Insp. General is of opinion that the clerk is well fitted to hold the post of manager.

2. Attention is however invited to the Inspector General's remarks in his letter no. 4631 of 15th December 1901 in which he declined to support Ramachandra Aiyar's previous application. In order to ensure that the new scheme of clerical establishments in police offices should produce a real improvement and not merely an increase of pay to the old unqualified staff, he thought that no head constable who retained his place in the office under an exemption order should be promoted to any higher post than that he held at the time of the reorganisation. The Clerk was already in receipt of the highest salary that existed under the old scale of establishment.

2. In the circumstances, orders are solicited as to whether the exemption now applied for should be granted. It is rather strange that no reference should have been made in the present application to the old correspondence on the subject.

The Dy. Commr is refused to his predecessor's intervention.
Endorsement read in L.P. 12.1.01. No 19 - Value.
Very special reasons exist. There seems no reason to exempt in this case. There are probably several cases in Dy. Commr's office.

Unfortunately
Mr. Kame wants to have about 12 men than 280.

C. No. 1744, From the I. G. of Police, No. 5046, dated 17th Novr. 1902

ORDER No 723, dated 22-11-1902.

The I.G. of Police is referred to his predecessor's endorsement on the petition read in G.O.No.19 d/ 12th January 1901. Unless very special reasons exist there seems no reason for exemption in the case. There are probably several other similar cases in Superintendents' offices.
