To

The Secretary to Government,

Fort St. George.

Sir,

With reference to G.O.No.723, Educational, dated 22nd November 1902, I have the honour to state that Mr. Stuart's endorsement read in G.O.No.19, Educational, dated 12th January 1901, shows that he refused to support the petitioner's application because by so doing he would be contravening a rule made by himself, which he saw no sufficient reason to do. Mr. Stuart subsequently withdrew that rule in November 1901. Therefore the objections to the petitioner's exemption, which existed in January 1901, do not ^{now} exist, and as the man has been universally commended by his superiors and recommended by the present Deputy Inspector-General, as also the entries in his confidential register are exceptionally favourable, I ventured to apply again for exemption on his behalf. I am not aware of a similar case in any other Superintendent's office and have no intention of proposing to exempt any other person with a view to his appointment as manager. I may add that anticipating the grant of exemption, the man was sent to Nellore as manager on 15th November 1902, and as I consider that his exemption is for the benefit of the public service, I now again request that Government will be pleased to permit it.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

J. S. Mullaly

for Ag. Insp.-Genl. of Police.

C. No. 1819

SUBJECT.

Exemption from certain special tests of S. Ramachandra Aiyar, a clerk in the District Police Office at Salem.

Orders are solicited as to whether in the circumstances now reported the exemption applied for should be granted.

Nothing is known in the office about Mr. Stuart's modification of his own rule but no resulting applications for exemption have come in. The J.G.'s stated that he has no intention of applying for any further exemption appears to be rather an admission against the present application. He would probably have not made it if he were at the time fully aware of all the circumstances of the case.

I think we may exempt.

Yes. This is a special case of an able man - who probably from his experience & character can manage an office specially well.
