GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

From the Hon'ble Mr. G. H. STUART, M.A., Director of Public Instruction, to the Secretary to Government, Educational department (through the Accountant-General), dated Madras, 8th November 1902, Ref. on C. No. 5683.

With reference to the enclosed copy of a letter from the Principal, College of Agriculture, I have the honour to request that you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government under article 1168 (c) of the Civil Service Regulations to the grant of a daily allowance of As. 2 to the two peons who accompanied Mr. Thorne in his recent tour of agricultural enquiry extending beyond the limits of a single district, and to instruct the Accountant-General to withdraw his objection. Mr. Thorne's tour was sanctioned in G.O., No. 573, Educational, dated 9th October 1901.

2. I beg further to request that the peons of the College of Agriculture may, for the reasons given by Mr. Keess, be allowed in future a daily allowance of As. 2 irrespective of their pay.

ENCLOSURE.

From W. KEESS, Esq., Principal, College of Agriculture, to the Director of Public Instruction, dated Madras, 30th July 1902, No. 660.

During Mr. Thorne's recent tour of agricultural enquiry which lasted  $4\frac{1}{2}$  months and during which he visited at least ten districts the college provided him with a peon (vide your Proceedings Ref. on C. No. 5779, dated 12th October 1901) from the menial establishment and one man toured with Mr. Thorne during October, November and December 1901, and another man during January and February 1902. Mr. Thorne allowed these men As. 2 a day batta, but the Accountant-General has ruled that they are entitled to only one anna a day batta, and has ordered the excess to be recovered from the men. Under article 1168 (c) of the Civil Service Regulations, local Governments can allow inferior servants As. 2 a day batta and the peons of several Educational officers from the Director of Public Instruction to the Sub-Assistant Inspector of Muhammadan Schools are allowed batta at As. 2 a day (vide page 87, Madras Supplement of the Civil Service Regulations). The peons who accompanied Mr. Thorne receive a salary of Rs. 7 a month, and his recent tour was a particularly arduous one, for, as mentioned before, it was made in at least ten districts and a good deal of it was accomplished by marching. Under these circumstances, I venture to hope you will address Government with a view to the peons of this college being allowed the advantage of article 1168 (c) of the Civil Service Regulations with retrospective effect from 1st October 1901. It is not often that a peon of this college will tour with the Principal or any member of the staff, but if he does it is almost sure he will tour through several districts. I may add that the total recovery ordered by the Accountant-General is Rs. 11-12-0—a large sum considering the salary of the peons.

Endt. No. T. 118-C.L.-7876.

Forwarded to Government.

Provided Government consider that Mr. Thorne was an inspecting officer within the meaning of article 1168 (c) of the Civil Service Regulations, there is no audit objection to the grant of a daily allowance of As. 2 to the peons who accompanied him in his recent agricultural tour under article 1168 (c), Civil Service Regulations.

There is also no audit objection to Government sanctioning the enhanced rate of daily allowance for the peons of the College of Agriculture when they are accompanying any inspecting officer attached to the college while on a tour of inspection, provided that the tour extends beyond the Chingleput district. The Director of Public Instruction may be empowered to decide in each case whether the member is an inspecting officer within the meaning of article 1168 (c), Civil Service Regulations.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 787, EDUCATIONAL, DATED 22ND DECEMBER 1902.

[SUBJECT.—Daily allowance of 2 annas to peons of the College of Agriculture.]

From the Director of Public Instruction, No. 5683, dated 8th November 1902.

Mr. Thorne, Vice-Principal of the College of Agriculture, is not an inspecting officer under the ordinary acceptance of the term. But the tour which he made under G.O., No. 573, Educational, dated 9th October 1901, was mainly one of inspection, and in view of this fact the peons who accompanied Mr. Thorne may be granted a daily allowance of 2 annas.

2. The other question for orders is whether this concession may be extended to all peons of the College of Agriculture who may accompany any officer attached to the college who may go out on tour, the Director of Public Instruction deciding on each occasion whether the officer concerned is an inspecting officer within the meaning of article 1168 (c) of the Civil Service Regulations. There is no audit objection and it is submitted that the desired extension may be granted.
