To

The Secretary to Government,

Educational Department.

Madras.

Sir,

The Head Assistant Collector, Hosur Division, has appointed one Thanappan, aged 23 years, as permanent peon on Rs. 6 in the Krishnagiri Taluk office. He is of medium height, and knows how to read and write Tamil, but does not possess the required educational qualifications. He is reported to have been for sometime a temporary process peon. Finding it difficult to get trustworthy and competent passed men in his division, the Head Assistant Collector has appointed the said Thanappan, as being the best man available for the peon's post, and applies for his permanent exemption from the Examination rules. I have, therefore, the honour to support his recommendation, and request that the sanction solicited may be accorded.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Alcoobalam
