From A. WILLIAMS, Esq., Deputy Secretary to the Government of India, Home department (Education), to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Educational department, dated Calcutta, 16th December 1902,
No. 968.

With reference to the correspondence ending with your letter No. 579, dated the 14th October 1901, I am directed to state, for the information of the Governor in Council, that the Government of India, after careful consideration of the opinions of Local Governments and Administrations, find that the objections to the proposal to extend the Postal Insurance system to teachers employed in municipal, board and aided schools, outweigh the advantages. It has been decided accordingly to abandon the scheme.

ORDER—No. 3, Educational, dated 9th January 1903.
