The Hon'ble Mr.H.Bradley.

REFERENCE:-

The Board begs to request the sanction of Government to the exemption from the Examination Rules of Clifford Avis with a view to his employment as a Sub-Inspector in the Salt, Abkari and Customs Department. This man is an army reservist, with ten years' service in the Durham Light Infantry of which five were spent as a signaller. Since leaving the army he has been employed as an Assistant brewer in the Rose and Crown brewery which he is leaving, as it has gone into liquidation, with an excellent character. The Board proposes to employ him, if his exemption is sanctioned, in connection with the scheme for the better supervision of the hill breweries in which capacity his experience in brewing will be of value.
