Madras

Sir,

I have the honour to bring to your notice the claims of V. S. Padmanabha Aiyar, 5th class, Sub Collector's Office, Tuticorin, for permission, though a Matriculate, to appear for the "Criminal Judicial Test Lower grade".

2. He has put in nearly 9 years of service of which he has spent about 5 in Sub Magistrate's office and the Joint Magistrate's office. He has acted as Magisterial clerk under Mr. Young and myself in the latter office and has given every satisfaction in that capacity to both of us. Mr. Ayling, Mr. Bedford and Mr. Young have all spoken of him as an excellent clerk thoroughly deserving promotion and I quite agree with them.

3. I am of opinion that his being debarred from appearing for the test will not be in the interests of the public service, and that his being allowed to better himself by passing that test will be of benefit to the public service. I therefore strongly recommend that he be granted permission to appear for the test.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient servant

S. Wallace

C. No. 108.

SUBJECT.

Permission to appear for criminal test, lower grade.

The Collector of Simevelly strongly recommends that one V. S. Padmanabha Aiggar, fifth clerk in the sub collector's office, Simevelly, may be permitted to appear for the criminal test, lower grade and says that his predecessors speak very highly of him. The clerk is only a matriculate but appears to be deserving of the concession.

It is only permission to appear for the examination that is wanted and this may perhaps be granted. The draft placed below may issue.
