Translation of a Persian Letter from Sir Arthur Wellesley to the address of Khan Sahib.

To

KHAN SAHIB.

Yours to hand and I have mastered its contents. Two guards of privates proceed to Kristnaghurry and another to Bangalore in a space of 2 or 3 days.

You can obtain the required intimation on enquiry from Major Grant, Town Major to whom I have also addressed. Those guards will accompany you.

(Signed) ARTHUR WELLESLEY.

Translation of a letter from Morquis Cornwallis.

To

KHAN SAHIB.

With the lively sense of my hearty affection which I ever bear in visiting you and hearing your welfare. I have the greatest pleasure in intimating to you that your intimacy and friendship with me give occasion to unlimited alacrity in me. Blessings be to God that I arrived safe in Calcutta on the 23th July corresponding with 7th Zeekhad. I am fully convinced that you will have the greatest pleasure to have learnt this intelligence taking me as one ever bent to seek your sound health and prosperity.

Until we have an occasion to visit each other I sanguinely hope you will be pleased to communicate to me of your sound health. Nothing more.

(Signed) CORNWALLIS.

Translation of a Persian Letter from Sir John Shore to the address of Khan Sahib.

To

KHAN SAHIB.

I pay my best respects as you seem inclined to augment our friendship. I arrived in Calcutta from England where I learnt from Morquis Cornwallis that you had secured his friendship and intimacy. On consideration of your faithfulness and good manners I am sure you will secure a world-wide fame. When the fact was brought to my notice your intimacy and high inclination are found to be self evident truths in you. I feel extremely sorry on my failure to disembark in Madras on my way from home and thus forsake an opportunity to personally hold my discourse with you. Lord Cornwallis had formed a high opinion of Tippu Sultan. The Morquis Bahadur conferred the Governor-Generalship on me and I hope you will continue to keep up your intimacy with me in the same manner as you had kept it up with the Noble Morquis. Nothing more.

(Signed) J. SHORE.

ASIATIC ANNUAL FOR THE YEAR 1799.
Supplement to the State Papers. Page 288.

From The Mysore Commissioners.
To The Governor-General.

MY LORD,

We have the honor to inform your Lordship that having yesterday taken into consideration the most eligible means of carrying into effect the measure of conciliation towards the principal surviving Surdars of the late Tippoo Sultan (residing at present in the city), suggested by the directions contained in the 2nd paragraph of your Lordship's letter of the 4th instant, we came to the following resolution:—

(1). To promise in the name of the Company pensions for life to the following persons to the amount specified after the name of each:—

	Star Pagodas.
Ghulam Ali Meer Suddoor	3,000
Ghulam Ali Khan, Wakil	3,000
Ali Raza Khan do.	3,000
Badaruszama Khan	3,000
Syed Mohd. Khan	2,400

Pension equal to half the amount of their respective salaries under the late Government, such stipend to be continued to them during good behaviour. In our selection of the Surdars named above, we were guided by consideration referring partly to the services which they have manifested towards British Government, and partly to the high respect entertained for their characters, and the weight and authority which they are universally acknowledged to pass amongst the Muhammedans of their country. In fixing the amount of the pensions to be granted to the Surdars already enumerated, our attention was not so much directed to the amount of their respective salaries under the late Tippoo Sultan as to the policy of securing by a liberal provision the attachment of so many persons of rank and influence to the interest and welfare of British Government in India. It did not appear advisable to us to fetter the provision made for the foregoing persons by any condition which might be thought to derogate from the liberality and munificence of the Company, we determined, therefore, to be satisfied with signifying to them that we have no doubt that their conduct would be such as to secure the continuance of the favor and protection of the British Government. All the Surdars mentioned above attended this morning by appointment and were received by us according to the classes into which we have previously arranged them. We have great satisfaction in informing your Lordship that these communications were received by every individual with very lively sensation of latitude, and in several instances of wonder, many of them expressing the greatest astonishment on unparalleled condescension and generosity of the Company and protection. From the manner in which the bounty of your Lordship to these persons has been received, we entertained a consistent expectation that the measure will produce the happiest effect in tranquilizing and conciliating all classes of people and in preparing their minds for the order of things about to be established. Your Lordship will observe that the total amount of the allowance which we have hitherto agreed to grant to the Surdars of the late Tippoo Sultan does not exceed the annual sum of 2,090,726 Star pagodas. We are persuaded, however, that the sum allotted by your Lordship as a fund for providing suitably for these various persons will be more than adequate to the purpose of enabling us to extend the Company's liberality to every individual whom it may be necessary to admit to a participation of it, either on the score of humanity or policy, having judged it of the utmost importance to lose no time in carrying into effect your Lordship's instructions with respect to the removal of the family of the late Tippoo Sultan. We this morning addressed a letter to the Commander-in-Chief, a copy of which we have the honor to enclose for your Lordship's information. The deficiency in draught, carriage, and cattle which at present exist both here and in camp, has compelled Colonel Wellesley to confine himself to the removal, in the first instance, of the four elder princes with their respective families. The remaining parts of the family inhabit the Zanana, and no danger is to be apprehended from their continuing in Seringapatam until it shall be practicable to remove them. We have great pleasure in informing your Lordship that Ghulam Ali Khan, Ali Raza Khan, Badaruszama Khan and Syed Mohamed Khan spontaneously attended on this occasion. The Meer Suddoor was prevented, we understand, by indisposition.

We have the honor to be,
My Lord,

Your most obedient servants,
HENRY WELLESLEY,
ARTHUR WELLESLEY,
AND
KIRKPATRICK.
