Sir,

Referring to letter No 389, dated 14th September 1901 from the Deputy Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department (Education), communicated in G.O. No 551, Educational, dated 30th September 1901 and to paragraph 3 of the Despatch from the Government of India, Finance and Commerce Department (Pensions and gratuities) No 309, dated 3rd October 1901 embodied in G.O. No 16, Educational, dated 9th January 1902, I have the honour to state that Mrs. Brander who returned to Madras on the 6th October last presumably with the intention of rejoining her appointment on the expiry of her furlough, reports, under date the 10th instant, that she does not feel strong enough to resume her duties on the termination of her leave, and cannot therefore avail herself of the permission granted in G.O. No 112, Educational dated 1st March 1902 to continue in the service until the 31st March, 1904. She has therefore decided to retire under the 55 years' rule with effect from the 20th February 1903, the date on which the furlough granted to her in G.O. R. No 786, Educational, dated 27th November 1902 expires. I therefore request that as already recommended Government may, in consideration of her non-pensionable service of 5 years and 3 months and of her valuable services to female education in this Presidency, be pleased to obtain the sanction of the Government of India to the condonation under article 465 A of the Civil Service Regulations of the deficiency of a year in her qualifying service in order that her pension may not fall short of her average emoluments.

2. I beg also to request that I may be informed whether the submission of Mrs. Brander's pension application may be deferred until the receipt of the order of the Government of India or whether anticipating that the deficiency will be condoned it may be submitted immediately after her retirement.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

G H Stuart

Director of Public Instruction.

Submitted to Government. There is no audit-objection to Mrs. Brander being permitted to retire from 20th February 1903 when she attains the age of 55. The question of condonation of the deficiency may be considered on the receipt of a formal pension application on her behalf after her actual retirement from the service.
