Sir,

I have the honor to report that M. R. Ry. Chinnia Odayar, Acting Deputy Tahsildar Magistrate of Poonamallee, was recently ordered by the Government to revert to his permanent appointment. If I had carried out this order to the letter it would have had the effect of ousting the acting Head Clerk of the Sub Collector's Office. This I considered to be inequitable, because the acting Head Clerk has been doing good work and it would be hard to make him suffer for another's fault. I could not nominate him to be a Sub Magistrate in place of M. R. Ry. Chinnia Odayar because he has not passed the requisite tests. I therefore appointed M. R. Ry. Chinnia Odayar to be Head Accountant of my office, the only other appointment in the district on Rs 85. The acting Head Accountant was a junior man who could not complain of being ousted.

2. M. R. Ry. Chinnia Odayar has been a Taluk Head Accountant for three years, and a want of intelligence is not one of his shortcomings. But he has not passed the Account Test Higher which is prescribed for the post of Huzur Head Accountant. I therefore request that the Board may be pleased to ask Government to exempt M. R. Ry. Chinnia Odayar permanently from passing the test.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

G. W. Dance
Collector.

C. No. 167

SUBJECT.

Exemption from the account test,
higher grade.

Orders are requested as to whether the permanent exemption from the account test recommended by the collector should be granted. It seems to be sufficient if he is temporarily exempted and asked to pass the examination within, say, the next two years.

ORDER No. 63, dated 7. 2. 1903.

Amie

13. Chinmaya Udayar will be temporarily exempted from the account test, higher grade, until the results of the examination to be held in October 1904 are announced. The Governor in Council sees no sufficient grounds justifying ~~exemption cannot be granted~~ the grant of permanent exemption.
