FURTHER PAPERS.

To

The Secretary to Government,

Revenue Department.

(Application from Syaid Khaja Ali Abbas Sahib Christie, grand-son of the late Nawab of Udayagiri, and acting Taluk gumasta, Udayagiri for a permanent feeing).

Submitted to Government with the remark that I have no recommendation to make on behalf of the petitioner. I have told him three or four times that I will not recommend him. He holds acting appointments in default of better men but can do only the humblest sort of work.

beg to bring the following few lines to your honors kind notice:— I. A large family with my three sisters—unmarried are depended upon me to have been supported ~~by me~~— though my Father has a share stream sillage from Jaghir of Udayagi— it is mortgaged for Rs 10,000 to one Gamala Dagganai of Koratnam pad nillage in Alimaburly, its income is not enough to the interest of the Rs borrowed from the Nation and my marriage is appended with my permanent exemption from examination rules. If my exemption will not be sanctioned I will be proved a useless fellow & never be married and my all Family will have to be met to a dead state for want of livelihood

I therefore humbly beg to request your honor to take pity ^{& support} on my whole family ^{& support} by recommending to the Government for any permanent exemption & by giving an permanent appointment.

For these acts of kindness I shall ever pray during my five Namazes of every day for your honor's long life & prosperity. I have submitted an separate application for the transmission of the
