13th March 1903.

To

The Secretary to Government Educational Department Fort St George through the Accountant General Madras

Sir,

I most respectfully beg to submit that I am an undergraduate and debarred from appearing for the Revenue and Criminal Higher tests without the permission of Government. I beg therefore that I may be allowed to appear for the above tests to enable me to qualify for the post of a Deputy collector.

I may here add that I have passed the Subordinate Accounts Service Examination prescribed in

in Article 1633 of the Civil Account-Code (vol II) - an examination which is more difficult and severe than any of the Government Special Test examinations.

I beg to remain
Sir,

Your most obedient servant.
P. Narasanyam Pillai.

Manager, Accountants General's Office

No. R 311

The applicant is an intelligent man of good character & unless a disqualifying defect is essential, Government may perhaps see fit to allow him to appear for the examination.

SUBJECT.

Permission to appear for certain special tests

For orders as to whether the permission applied for may be granted. The application is supported by the Accountant General but as the applicant however wishes to qualify for the post of a deputy Collector the Revenue department may be consulted in the first instance.
