To

His Excellency

THE RIGHT HONORABLE

Arthur Oliver Villiers Baron Ampthill G.C.I.E.

GOVERNOR OF FORT ST. GEORGE,

M A D R A S .

The humble memorial of Syed Abdur
Rahman Razavi,
Clerk, Office of Examiner of Supply and Transport Accounts, residing at No. 9, Thowleath Khan
Bhadur Street behind Wallajah
Mosque, Mount Road, Madras.

Most Respectfully Sheweth,

That your Excellency's humble memorialist belongs to a very respectable family, and is the son of the late Moulavi Syed Abdulla Sahib. He having passed the Matriculation Examination in 1888, and the Hand-writing Test in 1890, entered the public service in the year 1891, as an apprentice on Rs 20 in the Office of the Controller of Military Accounts, Madras. After a service of nearly 9 years, your Excellency's humble memorialist was promoted in the month of March 1899, as a 5th grade clerk on Rs 20-40. The prospects in this Department being very slow, it is the earnest desire of your Excellency's humble memorialist to seek employment in the Revenue Department of the Administration. In this connection, your Excellency's humble memorialist begs to submit for your Excellency's kind consideration that according to the public service notification he has to pass the Revenue Higher and Criminal Higher and Lower examinations to qualify himself for higher appointments appointments, and for these he cannot appear under the rules regulating Government examinations, inasmuch as graduates, and those who have passed the First Examination in Arts, are alone allowed to appear, and your Excellency's humble memorialist is only a Matriculate.

2. As your Excellency's humble memorialist, is wanting in the above qualifications, he most humbly craves, that your Excellency will be graciously pleased to exempt him from the above restrictions to enable him to appear for the said examinations. It may not be out of place to add for your Excellency's favorable consideration that it is not too much to ask for the exemption in question when it is the policy of the Government to encourage the backward classes, especially, the Mahomedans, in matters educational.

3. In conclusion, your Excellency's humble memorialist begs to enclose copies of testimonials regarding his parentage, &c.

4. Under the above circumstances, he most humbly and respectfully solicits that your Excellency will be graciously pleased to accord sanction to the exemption in question. For which act of kindness your Excellency's humble memorialist will, as in duty bound, ever pray for your Excellency's long life, health and prosperity.

Syed Abul Rahman

Madras,

This is to certify that I have known the bearer Syed Abdur Rahman for a long time, he being the son of the late much venerated Moulavi Syed Abdulla Sahib, with whom I was acquainted for thirty years, and who was a person of extensive learning and erudition, and who enlisted my sympathy by his unquestionable rectitude of character.

I think the offspring of so distinguished a person deserves encouragement from all with whom he comes in contact.

He being now in the public service, his case deserves, I think, special consideration at the hands of Government.

Harris School, Royapettah,

Madras, 6th. March 1889.

Saiyid Abdur Rahman Razavi has been reading for 1½ years in this school and has just passed the Matriculation. He has ~~been~~ shewn good ability and has stood first in his class. In translation work he has especially exhibited great skill and good knowledge of idiomatic English and Persian.

Harris High School,

8th March 1889.

Syed Abdur Rahman Razavi was a pupil of Harris High school for 12 years. He passed the Matriculation Examination this year having taken Persian as his optional language. As a pupil he was regular and punctual in his attendance and distinguished himself in the class by invariably holding the first place in all the Class Examinations. I have always found him to be a well behaved an honest and an industrious lad of good principle and I am therefore confident that he will discharge the work entrusted to him carefully and well. I wish him every success in his future career.

Harris School.

Saiyid Abdur Rahman Razavi was a pupil of mine in the Matriculation class, Harris High School, Royapettah in 1888. He passed the Matriculation Examination of December 1888 from the Harris School and stood highest in all that passed from the Institution. I have great pleasure in giving this testimonial to his good character and fair abilities and feel sure that he will abundantly satisfy any one who may entrust him with any work. As a student he was regular in his attendance and attentive to his duties.
