To the Director of Public Instruction,

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 209, EDUCATIONAL, DATED
11TH MAY 1903.

[SUBJECT.—Rules of the College of Engineering.]

From the Director of Public Instruction, dated 24th April 1903, No. 7561.

With reference to G.O., No. 597, Educational, dated 27th September 1902, the Director proposes to add three rules as Nos. 76, 77 and 78 to the rules of the College of Engineering sanctioned in G.O., No. 366, Educational, dated 28th June 1901. The first of these occurs as article IX of the rules of the College of Agriculture on page 5 of G.O., No. 493, Educational, dated 11th August 1898. The second and third correspond to rules 22 and 23 of chapter VI of the Educational rules, page 76.

2. The question for consideration now is whether the additional rules should come immediately after the present rule 75 and under the subhead "(7) Stipends to Teachers under training" under the main head "Scholarships, Stipends and Prizes." These headings relate to the regular students of the college, whereas the proposed new rules refer to casual students. There is a separate heading for these latter students—vide heading of rules 96 and 97. It is submitted therefore that the new rules may be inserted after rule 97.

3. There seems to be no necessity to make three rules of the matter. It is submitted that one rule as altered in pencil is sufficient. There appears to be no necessity to insist on private teachers appearing for any technical examination so as to enable their managers to draw grants on their behalf during the time they undergo a course in the college. It is enough if the Principal of the College is satisfied that they have benefited by the training.

P. T. THARYAN—28-4-03.

A rule of many lines in print is objectionable. I think the best division will be to make the words "Any duly qualified teacher . . . free of charge" one rule, to be numbered 97-A ;

the words as rearranged "A teacher . . . their progress satisfactory" a second rule, 97-B ; and the rule numbered 78 by the Director of Public Instruction a third rule, 97-C.

A. T. PRINGLE—29-4-03.

I agree,

A. G. CARDEW—29-4-03.

The draft placed below may issue.
