Mr. Schumann, - To ask the Secretary of State for India, whether his attention has been drawn to a speech by Lord Amphill, Governor of Madras, as ex-officio Chancellor of the Madras University, in which he deprecated the discussion of administrative Acts and comments upon the conduct of public affairs and the effect of legislative and other measures affecting the general interest of the Country; and if so, will he state whether he proposes to take any, and, if so, what steps in the matter.

(S. Wood)

Answer to Mr. Schumann's Question, No. 3, dated 23rd April 1903.

The hon. Gentleman has referred to the speech of Lord Amphill, Governor of Madras, as ex-officio Chancellor of the Madras University, in which he deprecated the discussion of administrative Acts and comments upon the conduct of public affairs and the effect of legislative and other measures affecting the general interest of the Country; and if so, will he state whether he proposes to take any, and, if so, what steps in the matter.
