Additional cost - Rs. 588 per annum EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

C. No. 809 From the Director of Public Instruction No. 2232 dated 8-5-1903.

SUBJECT.

Appointment of additional teachers in certain Govt. Girls' Schools.

The Director's proposals for re-organizing the girls' schools in the Central circle have just been returned to him for revision and he has been asked whether the schools in the Northern and Southern circles do not require any re-organization - Vide G.O. no. 2388st of 21st May 1903. The schools involved in the present proposals are in the Southern circle. It seems ~~it~~ ^{to be} advisable to wait till his reply to the G.O. just mentioned is received. If agreed, he may be informed accordingly.

I should like to see the terms of G.O. 238-d 21st May 1903 when it has issued, in order to consider whether it wd not be better to return this to the D.P.I. for incorporation in a general scheme.

The changes proposed in the case of the schools at Erode, & Srirangam are small were explained in the Director's Letters of last Sept, and I do not see any reason to postpone giving sanction to them. In the case of Diindigul, the proposals made in the Director's No 6014 were supported by no definite reasons, & the strength of the School was not even stated. The scale of pay is proposed to be revised throughout (except the Mistresses) & this case ought, I think, to be dealt with as part of the general scheme.
