C. No. 669, From the DDP, Dated 24-4-1903.

Subject. Acting arrangements, Medical College.

This letter was held back till it could be ascertained what orders Public ^{was} going to pass on the corresponding application to that department from the Surgeon General. The A.G. has not ^{as yet} however replied to the reference to him on the subject and there will thus be some delay ~~before~~ in the issue of the Public order. It is submitted therefore that this current may meanwhile be formally ordered to lie over. In the case of the ^{medical} officers holding appointments in the Presidency towns in 73/5/3 the medical College, the two go together.
