The Secretary to Government,

Sir,

Referring to para 1 of G.O. No. 597 Educational d/27th September 1902, I have the honour to submit, for favour of the approval of Government, a draft of the additions ^{and alterations} to be made in the existing rules of the School of Arts in accordance with the letter from the Government of India communicated with the above G.O. The new rule will be numbered article VIII, the existing article VIII being numbered IX.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

G. H. Stuart

Director of Public Instruction.

in British India shall have printed legibly on it the name of the printer and the place of printing, and (if the book be published) of the publisher and the place of publication. Nothing is said as to where these particulars are to be printed on the book.

2. In the case of a press or society which is incorporated, and which prints or publishes or prints and publishes the book, the name of such press or society would be sufficient, but, in cases where the press or society is not incorporated, the name of the printer and publisher, or the names of the printers and publishers, if more than one, must be printed legibly on the book. The object of the Act is, as I understand it, to let the public know by whom and where the book is printed, and by whom and where it is published, and this information must be printed legibly on the book. I do not think that to put the name of an incorporated press or society on a book as the name of the printer or publisher would be a compliance with the Act, as the public would then have to find out who were the proprietors of the press or the members of the society. I think that the name of the superintendent of a press, such as the Lawrence Asylum Press, or the Evangelical Lutheran Mission Press, would be sufficient.

I have, &c.,

C. No. 872 From the

No. 7561 dated 3-6-1903.

SUBJECT.

Rules of the School of Arts.

The existing rules of the School of Arts were sanctioned in G.O. No 671 Vol I 14th October 1886 and will be found stitched with the original of these proceedings. The rules which it is now proposed to add are the same as those approved in G.O. No 209 Vol I 11th May 1903 for the College of Engineering. There is ^{thus} no objection to their ^{being} approved for the School of Arts also but it is for consideration whether this is advisable or necessary.

2. Since the rules of 1886 were sanctioned the pottery department of the school has been abolished - G.O. No 17 Vol I 9th January 1902 - the scale of fees has been altered - G.O. No 773 Vol I 21st December 1901 - and other changes in organization have been introduced - G.O. No 511 Vol I 18th October 1900. The school is also about to be re-organized - G.O. No 468 Vol I 22nd August 1901. It is submitted therefore that the additional rules now proposed may wait till the re-organization is effected and a thorough revision of the rules is undertaken.

3. The object of the proposed rules is to ^{grant to} ~~enable~~ teachers deputed to undergo a course of instruction at the School of Arts a portion of their pay not exceeding one-half in addition to their stipend. This concession has already been granted in the letter from the Govt of India printed on pages 8 & 9 of 80. No 597 Vol 4 27th September 1902. There is therefore no hurry about its incorporation in the rules of the School of Arts. Moreover no teacher from any school has as yet been sent to the School of Arts for a course of instruction and there is hardly any chance of any being sent before the School is re-organized.

Py 18/6/13 I quite agree. It seems to me such waste of time to take trouble in modifying the rules of an institution which - this much is absolute certainty - will be in the course of a year or two be a wholly different thing.

Py 22/6/13

Personally I don't like hanging up questions for an indefinite period. Moreover the alterations proposed seem to be small, & to carry out orders already passed. I should therefore be disposed to sanction the amendment.
