(Through the Accountant-General, Madras.)

Sir,

I have the honour to submit the enclosed copy of a letter received from the Principal, Mrs. A.V. Narasinga Rau's College Vizagapatam, dated 2nd April 1903, No. 80, and to recommend that sanction for the sale of the Government securities referred to therein may be accorded.

2. The Executive Engineer, Vizagapatam Division was permitted to supervise the work in G.O. No. 1156 W. dated 18th April 1903 communicated with ^{Enclt.} G.O. No. 247 Educational, dated 23rd idem.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Director of Public Instruction.

No. 80.

2nd April 1903.

From

The Principal,

Mrs. A.V. Narasinga Rau's College,

Vizagapatam.

To

The Director of Public Instruction,

Madras.

Sir,

Reference your Proceedings R.C.No. 8632 of 01, d/ 27th March 1903 forwarding ^a grants-in-aid bill for Rs 16 000/-.

I have the honour to state that the amount of the Bill under reference was drawn and deposited in the Vizagapatam Branch of the Bank of Madras on 31st March 1903 in the names of the Chairman (Collector) and the Honourary Treasurer of the College. Because the Executive Engineer not yet having received orders from the Government permitting him to supervise the re-construction of the College building no deposit account could be opened in his name. As soon as he receives the orders of the Government, the above amount, will be transferred to an account to be opened in the local branch of the Bank of Madras in the names of the Collector and Executive Engineer as required ^{est} by the latter.

Of the amount to be contributed by the Manager of the College for its reconstruction only Rs 16 000/- are available here and this amount represents the accumulated interest on the College endowment. The balance is to be met by the sale of Government Securities of the nominal value of Rs 15 000/- left by the late Mr. A.V. Narasinga Rau for building ^{fund} and of Rs 4 000/- being the fund handed over by the late Hindu College. These Government securities ^{are} in the custody of the Accountant-General.

I therefore request you will be good enough to move the Government to instruct the Accountant-General, Madras to sell these Government Pro notes Viz., No. 038395 at $3\frac{1}{2}\%$ of 1854-55 for Rs 15 000/- and ~~No~~ -- of 1865 at $3\frac{1}{2}\%$ for Rs 4 000/- and ~~to~~ remit the sale proceeds to the manager

manager of the College, for being deposited in the Bank of Madras in the names of the Collector and the Executive Engineer.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

C. No. 879 From the Director of Public Instruction No. 8632 dated 26.5.1903.

SUBJECT.

Mrs. A. V. Narasinga Rao's College, Vizagapatam.

- X Please see the note in G.O. no. 210 Edl dated 10th April 1897. The late Mr. A. V. Narasinga Rao bequeathed a lakh of rupees for the establishment of a college in the town of Vizagapatam besides Rs. 15,000 for a building to locate that college in.
- R In G.O. no. 643 Public dated 12th September 1892, the Government accepted the trust, and in January 1897 Mr. Willock submitted in consultation with the Director of Public Instruction a scheme for the establishment of the college. In this scheme it was proposed to take over the existing Hindu college at Vizagapatam with its assets and liabilities and to vest the management of the institution in a committee consisting of five members, — the collector, the Inspector of Schools and the three executors of Mr. R. Ry Narasinga Rao's will. It was also proposed that the local board should hold the revenues and audit the accounts of the institution. This scheme was
- K Sanctioned in G.O. no. 143 Edl dated 3rd March 1895 with the modification that instead of the District Board the Board of Madras should act as bankers of the college revenues and that the Accountant-General should audit the accounts. The number of members of the Committee was subsequently
- P increased to seven — Vide G.O. no. 311 Edl dated 2nd June 1899.
2. In 1899 the Committee requested that the Superintendent

^{might be moved}
~~of Engineer, I think, might be directed~~ to furnish it with plans and estimates for repairing and extending the existing college building - vide G.O. no. 311 Edl dated 2nd June 1899. The necessary instructions were issued in G.O. no. 1683 W dated 29th June 1899. The Superintending Engineer accordingly furnished the Committee with the required plans and estimates and requested Government to permit the Executive Engineer, Vizagapatam, division to supervise the work. This proposal was, so far, approved in G.O. no. 1156 W dated 11th April 1903.

3. The work is estimated to cost Rs 49,900 towards which a grant of Rs. 16,633 was sanctioned in G.O. no. 670 Edl, dated 31st October 1902. The grant has already been drawn and deposited in the Bank. Besides this sum the Committee has with it Rs. 16,000, the accumulated interest on the endowment. To meet the balance of Rs 17,267 the Committee requests that the Accountant General may be directed to sell Government Securities of the nominal value of Rs. 15,000 left by the late Mr. A.V. Narasingsa Rao for building purposes and of Rs. 4,000 the fund handed over by the late Hindu College Committee, (as to this fund please see G.O. no. 483 Edl dated 26th July 1899), and to remit the sale proceeds to it.

4. The committee proposes to deposit in the names of the collector and the Executive Engineer the amount of the grant drawn from Provincial Funds and the proceeds of the Securities to be sold. The amount in hand will apparently be similarly deposited. As however the work has now been treated as a contribution work the whole of the estimated cost has to be paid into the treasury to the credit of the Public works department department under paragraph 1013 of the Public works Code. The attention of the Committee may be drawn to this.

P.

I.

5. Under the same paragraph of the Public works Code, the Government may permit the amount required for a building to be paid in instalments. The committee has now Rs. 32,633 with it and it will be some time before this amount is spent. The Accountant General may therefore be ordered to sell the notes referred to only about the time further funds are required. Meanwhile some interest will accrue on the notes.

6. From the papers it appears that the grant for the building was paid even before any building work was commenced. This was irregular under rule 114 of the grant-in-aid code and the Director's attention may be drawn to the irregularity.

By
 9/6/13

Sanction may be accorded to the sale of the paper, subject to A.

2. Attention may be called to the terms of ^{Grant-in-aid} Code, 113 & to the premature payment of the building grant.

ORDER

No. 311, dated 26-6-1903

mis

As the Committee of the Mrs. A.V. Narasinga Rao's College has now in hand a sum of Rs 32,632 for expenditure on the repairs and additions to the College building, the Accountant General is requested to sell the promissory notes referred to, of the nominal value of Rs 19,000, and remit the proceeds to the Committee when this amount is exhausted and further funds are required.

2. The attention of the Director will be drawn to the fact that the Educational Grant for the building was paid contrary to the provisions of the Grant-in-aid Code even before the work was commenced.
