NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., Nos. 313—315, EDUCATIONAL, DATED 29TH JUNE 1903.

[SUBJECT.—Text-Book Committee.]

From the Director of Public Instruction, No. 2116, dated 20th June 1903.

For orders as to whether the Director's proposals may be approved. Under No. 3 of the rules for the Text-book Committee in G.O., No. 445, Educational, dated 10th September 1900, the Government may at any time and without assigning reasons remove any member. The removal of the Rev. W. H. Campbell, Mr. Stradiot, Rev. Mr. Chandler and Dewan Bahadur V. Krishnama Chariyar is therefore perfectly legal, but these are all members who have given their services gratuitously to Government and at least three of them are non-officials. Would it not therefore be better if they are asked to resign?

2. The names of the members of the Committee as it stood on 1st April 1902 will be found on page 2 of G.O., No. 289, Educational, dated 13th June 1903.

P. T. THARYAN—24-6-03.

The proposed substitution of names may be quite correct, but as the above note points out, it would be somewhat churlish to remove the four gentlemen from the list without explanation. If, however, they are asked to resign, there may be nearly an equal amount of awkwardness. The better plan would be, perhaps, to alter rule 3 so as to limit membership to three or five years, and then ask Director of Public Instruction to submit recommendations for reconstituting the committee in accordance therewith. This will avoid future difficulty, and the persons not reappointed can be thanked for their services.

A. G. CARDEW—25-6-03.

A may be done. The Director is packing or would pack his committee with Government servants and that is not overwise.

J. T. [HOMSON]—26-6-03.

Please prepare a draft. It will have to be printed, hence the Director's letter, if read in it, must not appear except in heading.

A. G. CARDEW—26-6-03.

A draft is placed below for approval. With reference to paragraph 2 thereof, orders are solicited as to whether for the purposes of the rule as altered, the term of service of the existing members should not count from the date of the alteration. If so, it is submitted that a paragraph informing the Director accordingly and asking him to submit recommendations only for existing vacancies, may be substituted for the present paragraph 2 of the draft.

P. T. THARYAN—26-6-03.

I do not think this is in accordance with the Honourable Member's intention. The draft may issue.

A. G. CARDEW—27-6-03.
