Presidency Training School for Mistresses.

Directing that the Secretary of State be addressed on the subject of selecting a lady to fill the post of Superintendent of the Presidency Training School for Mistresses at Madras.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

From the Hon'ble Mr. G. H. STUART, M.A., Director of Public Instruction, Madras, to the Secretary to Government, Educational department, dated 16th June 1903, Cl. No. 33.

In continuation of my letter, Cl. No. 32 of this date, proposing the permanent transfer to the Inspectorate of Miss E. A. Gow, Superintendent of the Presidency Training School for Mistresses, I have the honour to request that the Secretary of State may be moved to select at an early date a suitable successor to her at the Presidency Training School. The person appointed should have had practical experience of the work of a training school for women, and be acquainted with all the most recent developments in the training of teachers. Probably the head of one of the principal training colleges, such as the Ladies' College at Cheltenham or Whitelands, might be able to assist in the selection. In this connection I would invite the attention of Government to paragraph 1 of Dr. Duncan's letter No. 11520, dated 1st October 1891.

2. Miss Parsons, who is at present acting as Superintendent, has applied for the place, but I do not recommend her confirmation.

ORDER—No 319, Educational, dated 2nd July 1903.

The Secretary of State will be addressed.

(True Extract.)

A. G. CARDEW,
Ag. Secretary to Government.
