GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

From the Hon'ble Mr. G. H. STUART, M.A., Director of Public Instruction, Madras, to the Secretary to Government, Educational department, dated 8th June 1903, Ref. on C. No. 680.

Under the rules sanctioned in G.O., No. 546, Educational, dated 20th July 1891, the Denison scholarship is tenable at the Madrasa-i-Azam during the whole period of the secondary course, its value being Rs. 3 in the lower secondary forms and Rs. 7 in the upper secondary. Under this arrangement the benefit of the scholarship is restricted to a single individual who enjoys it during a period of six years, while there is always the possibility during this long tenure, of his discontinuing his studies in the middle of the course and thus frustrating the object for which the scholarship is given. This, in fact, is what has now happened, the last holder having abandoned his studies before appearing for the Matriculation examination. In view of these circumstances, it has been suggested to me as a more advantageous way of utilising the endowment that the scholarship should be given only for three years and that it should be tenable only in the upper secondary forms. I approve of this suggestion as it seems certain that the purposes of the endowment would be better served by helping two pupils to go through the more expensive period of the secondary course, viz., the high school course and appear for the Matriculation examination than by helping one through the entire course; and I beg therefore to recommend that the scholarship be fixed at Rs. 5 and be made tenable for three years in the upper secondary forms of the Madrasa-i-Azam, the change taking effect from the beginning of the current year. A revised draft of the rules is submitted for approval and publication in the gazette.

ORDER—No. 378, Educational, dated 13th August 1903.

The proposed alterations are approved with the exception of that in rule 6.

2. As the interest on the fund is now payable to the Director and the headmaster of the Madrasa-i-Azam jointly, a further modification will be made in rule 1.

3. The rules as thus modified will be published in the Fort St. George Gazette.

APPENDIX.

Rules regarding the "Denison Scholarship."

The sum of Rs. [a] 1,200, presented by the Hon'ble Sharf-ul-umará Bahadur, shall be invested in [b] 4 per cent. Government paper, in the name of the Accountant-General of Fort St. George for the time being, and the interest made payable at the Bank of Madras upon the order of the Director of Public Instruction [c] and the headmaster of the Madrasa-i-Azam [c] for the time being.

[d] 2. A scholarship, to be called "the Denison Scholarship", of the value of Rs. 5 per mensem tenable during the three years of the upper secondary course shall be payable out of the interest of the said investment to the pupil of the Government Madrasa-i-Azam who passes the highest in the lower secondary examination or in the annual examination of the third form and is willing to continue his studies in that institution for the upper secondary course, provided he has formerly been a pupil of the Government salary-results school, Mylapore, for at least two years previous to his admission into the first form of the Madrasa-i-Azam and provided also he is in other respects deserving of the scholarship.

3. "The Denison Scholarship" shall be tenable at the [e] Madrasa-i-Azam for three years [f] * * * * [g] the object being to allow the holder to pass through the [h] upper secondary course [h] and matriculate at the University of Madras.

4. The scholarship shall be awarded by the Director of Public Instruction for the time being; and it shall be liable to be withdrawn by that officer in case of the scholar misconducting himself, or failing to make appropriate progress in his studies.

5. Any cash balance after investing in [b] 4 per cent. Government paper, and any interest which may not be expended, shall, from time to time, be applied to increase the endowment fund.

6. If considered advisable, it shall be permissible for Government to modify any of the rules of the "Denison Scholarship" consistently with the general aims of the donor, viz., (1) to mark his esteem and respect for Sir William Denison, by attaching His Excellency's name to the scholarship, and (2) to encourage Musalman youths to press on to a more advanced educational standard.

[a] This sum now (1903) amounts to Rs. 1,800.

[b] Now (1903) 3½ per cent.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 378, EDUCATIONAL, DATED 13TH AUGUST 1903.

[SUBJECT.—Revision of the rules for the award of the "Denison Scholarship".]

From the Director of Public Instruction, No. 680, dated 8th June 1903.

The Denison scholarship was established in 1866 by Sir Sharf-ul-umará with a view to encourage pupils who finish their course of studies at the Anglo-Vernacular school at Mylapore to prosecute their studies in the higher classes of the Madrasa-i-Azam. The rules for the grant of the scholarship were approved in G.O., No. 46, Educational, dated 15th February 1866, and in the sixth rule Government took power to modify the rules consistently with the general aim of the donor.

2. Accordingly rule 3 was altered in 1886 extending the tenure of the scholarship from three to five years and in 1891 to six years. In the latter year alteration was also made in rule 2, fixing the amount of the scholarship at Rs. 3 during the first three years and at Rs. 7 during the remaining three years of the term for which the scholarship is tenable.

3. It is now proposed to modify rules 2 and 3 again fixing the tenure of the scholarship at three years in the upper secondary class and the amount of the scholarship at Rs. 5 per mensem. The scholarship will still be payable only to a pupil who had been in the Mylapore Anglo-Vernacular school for not less than two years and who went straight from it to the Madrasa-i-Azam.

4. The other alterations now proposed in rules 1, 5 and 6 are of no consequence.

5. Submitted that all the proposed alterations may be approved and the draft placed below issued.

6. The interest of the fund is now payable to the Director of Public Instruction and the headmaster, Madrasa-i-Azam, and not to the former alone—vide page 37 of Part II of the Fort St. George Gazette, dated 20th January 1903. A slight pencil alteration has therefore been made in rule 1 also.

No objection.

Sir,

Under the rules sanctioned in G.O. No. 546 Educational dated 20th July 1891 the Denison scholarship is tenable at the Madrasa-i-Azam during the whole period of the secondary course, its value being Rs 3 in the lower secondary forms and Rs 7 in the upper secondary. This in fact is what has now happened, the last holder having abandoned his studies before appearing for the Matriculation examination. In view of these circumstances it has been suggested to me as ^a more advantageous way of utilising the endowment that the scholarship should be given only for three years and that it should be tenable only in the upper secondary forms. I approve of this suggestion as it seems certain that the purposes of the endowment would be better served by helping two pupils to go through the more expensive period of the secondary course ^{via} in the high school course and appear for the Matriculation Examination than by helping one through the entire course; and I beg therefore to recommend that the scholarship be fixed at Rs 5, and be made tenable for three years in the upper secondary forms of the Madrasa-i-Azam, the change taking effect from the beginning of the ^{current} calendar year.
