C. No. 1217 From the Govt. of Bengal No. 1860 dated 31st July 1903.

SUBJECT.

Cambridge local examinations.

~~These examinations have not been~~ ~~'introduced' into the European schools~~
~~in this presidency but arrangements~~
have been made for holding ^{examinations} these, with reference to the wish of the Govt. of India expressed in para. 9 of Mr
Herbert's letter no. 534 (Education) dated 27th November 1901. Vide D.P.'s notification
dated 27th March 1903 on page 144 of Part II
of the Fort St. George Gazette dated 24th March 1903.

2. The Collegiate schools for girls at Ootacamund and Madras alone have hitherto been sending pupils for these examinations
but, as the Director has now arranged to hold these examinations regularly and has notified the fact in the Gazette, it is probable that many of the European schools may train their pupils for them.

3. A reply on the above lines may be sent to the Govt of Bengal.

Draft placed below may issue.
