Sir,

I have the honour to apply for a grant in aid of the cost of the furniture of Caiethones Hall, the new Hostel presented to the College by Dr. Miller. The estimated cost is Rs 2,100/-. In submitting this application I may state:----

(1) that the building with site cost the donor between Rs 7000/- and Rs 8000/- in excess of the estimate (Rs 42,600/-) on which the Government grant was made:

(2) that meantime the cost of the furniture of the hostel has been met by Dr. Miller:

(3) that it was owing to his illness that sanction was not applied for in the regular way before the expenditure was incurred.

If in view of these circumstances this application will be favourably entertained, I shall submit an application in the usual form.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,
