EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 406, EDUCATIONAL, DATED
31ST AUGUST 1903.

[SUBJECT.—Text Book Committee.]

From the Director of Public Instruction, dated 12th August 1903, No. 2116.

In the list of names now proposed by the Director the following old names are omitted:—

The Rev. W. H. Campbell.	Mr. E. Marsden.
" " J. S. Chandler.	" C. E. Phipps.
Dewan Bahadur V. Krishnamachariyar.	Miss Smart.
The Rev. J. Lazarus.	Mr. E. Stradiot.

Of these Messrs. Lazarus, Marsden and Phipps and Miss Smart left the Presidency for periods exceeding six months and had thus vacated their seats under rule 3 as it* originally stood. Messrs. Campbell, Chandler, Krishnamachariyar and Stradiot have vacated under the rule as now altered—G.O., No. 313, dated 29th June 1903.

* G.O., 445, 10th September 1900.

Yes.

J. T. [HOMSON].

As decided in the notes connected with this Government order these four members may now be thanked for their services.

2. The following are the new names proposed:—

The Rev. Canon E. Sell.	M.R.Ry. C. Nagoji Rao.
Mr. J. H. Stone.	" M. Rangachariyar.
" J. B. Bilderbeck.	" K. Viresalingam Pantulu.
" R. Ll. Jones.	" V. S. Srinivasa Sastri.
M.R.Ry. B. Hanumanta Rao.

The maximum strength of the committee is twenty and the strength as it is now proposed to reconstitute it is nineteen. The Director will probably nominate an additional member later on, but this is not absolutely necessary.

3. Of the total of nineteen members as many as twelve are officials. In his orders in the notes connected with G.O., No. 313, dated 29th June 1903, Honourable Member said—"The Director is packing or would pack his committee with Government servants and that is not overwise." In paragraph 10 of the resolution of the Government of India printed in G.O., No. 94, Educational, dated 1st March 1900, that Government said that the committee should be so constituted as firstly to secure that the proportion of non-official members to the representatives of Government shall not be unduly large and secondly that different interests shall be properly represented. It is submitted that about a third of the total number is not a fair proportion for non-officials. It seems therefore that there should be at least two more of them. Under the proposal the non-conformist missionary societies will have but one representative on the committee against three for the C.M.S., and none for the S.P.G.

Mr. Padfield is, I believe, an excellent Telugu scholar, but he is "C.M.S."

A. T. PRINGLE.

Similarly Malayalam and Canarese will be poorly represented. It seems therefore that two of the officials newly proposed should be disallowed and two non-officials—a German missionary from the West Coast with a knowledge of Malayalam and Canarese and another Telugu representative of the S.P.G.—should be appointed instead.

P. T. THARYAN—22-8-03.

I think the remarks above are to the point and we may ask the Director u.o. to consider them or favour us with his remarks.

A. T. PRINGLE—24-8-03.

I don't know what paragraph 10 of the Government of India's resolution means, so far as the proportion of officials and non-officials goes. Its remarks were apparently aimed at Madras, where the officials were then less than one-third. On the present proposals they will be nearly two-thirds. It is not clear that this is wrong. Again, I don't think individual missionary societies need be separately represented, and I presume the Director wants residents in Madras as much as possible. To me it seems that the proportion of natives 11 in 19 is excessive, but I think we must presume that Mr. Stuart knows best, and I would accept his list.

A. G. CARDEW—25-8-03.

Accept it.
