C. No. 1317, From the D. of Police, No. 3315, Dated 21-8-1903.

Subject: Exemption from the examination rules

In giving effect to the scheme of reorganisation of the district police ^{office} establishments sanctioned by the Government of India in February 1900, the Inspector-General of Police reported that the unqualified head Constables and Constables hitherto employed in the district police offices were as far as possible absorbed in the executive force but that there were ~~some~~ some unqualified men who were unfitted by age or otherwise for executive work. ~~In the~~ ^{accordingly} ~~case of these men~~ the Inspector-General submitted a list of those for whom permanent exemption was required and of those whom it was proposed to exempt temporarily. G. Adinarayudu, the applicant in question, ^{was} ~~is~~ one of those who belonged to the latter class. He was then reported to be a hard-working and useful clerk of long service but unfit for executive work and was recommended ^{for} exemption for 3 years until the end of 1903 when it was stated that he would retire. The man was accordingly exempted from the examination rules - Vide G.O. no. 591 Educational, dated 22nd November 1900.

2. The Inspector-General of Police now ^{recommends} ~~reports~~ that G. Adinarayudu may be permanently exempted from the examination rules and states that the clerk is reported to be a very useful hand in the office and that his retention on
