Office of the Board of Revenue,
(Land Revenue)

Madras, dated 24th August 1903.

The Hon: Mr. H. A. Sim.

Reference, D. No.179, dated 24th August 1903.

The Collector of Kistna recommends the permanent exemption of one M. Venkatasubbaiya from the Handwriting and Dictation test.

2. Venkatasubbaiya served in the Revenue Department in the Kistna District for over seven years from December 1888 to March 1896 when he applied for leave to study for the B.A. Degree Examination and, on the leave being refused resigned the permanent Clerkship on Rs.25 which he then held. Having failed to pass the examination, he joined the Estate branch of the Godavari Collector's office in April 1897 and in June following was made a Circle Inspector, famine duty, Kurnool District on Rs.70. In 1898 he was taken into the Kistna District first as Assistant Manager, Munagala Estate, on Rs.30/- and then as Head Clerk of the Estate branch of the Collector's office on Rs.40/- He also acted as manager of Munagala from 9th April to 31st October 1900 on Rs.100/- Besides the first examination in Arts which he had passed in 1887 when it was not necessary for F.A's. to pass the handwriting test, he has passed the Special tests named in the Government service as a Permanent Revenue Inspector and with

this object he has already appointed him as a First Class Revenue Inspector, Sub-protem, in the Gudivada taluk.

3. The Board supports the Collector's recommendation. Venkatasubbaiya is already 36 years of age but the Board has no objection to exempt him from disqualification on account of age in the event of his being exempted by Government from the Hand Writing test.

C. No. 1349, From the Board of Revenue (L.R.), No. 179, Dated 24-8-1903.

Subject: - Exemption from the examination rules.

In submitting with their support the recommendation of the Collector of Kistna for the permanent exemption of one M. Venkatasubbayya who has already been appointed as Sub-protem Revenue inspector in the Godavari taluq, the Board observe that the applicant served in the Revenue department in the Kistna district for over seven years from December 1888 to March 1896 when he, having been refused leave ~~to~~ to study for the B.A. degree examination, resigned the permanent clerkship on Rs. 25 which he ~~then~~ held. It is reported that he, having failed to pass the examination, joined the estate branch of the Godavari Collector's office in April 1897, was made a circle inspector on famine duty in the Kurnool district in June following and was in 1898 taken into the Kistna district first as assistant manager, Munagala estate, and then as head clerk of the estate branch of the Collector's office. The applicant has passed in addition to the First in arts examination the Revenue test, higher grade, the precise writing test, the account test, higher grade, and the translation test, lower grade, and has completed the training in Survey required for revenue inspectors. The Board also state that they have no objection to exempt him from the ~~age~~ disqualification on account of age in the event of his being exempted by Government from the handwriting and
