To

The Secretary to Government,
Educational Department.

Sir,

The house recently built for Mr. Thorne, Vice Principal, College of Agriculture, has not been occupied by his successor M.R. Ry. Krishna Prabhu; the Consulting Architect considers it unsuitable for a Brahmin with a family and has suggested that it might be used by a member of the staff of the Teachers' College. I have accordingly instructed Mr. Braithwaite, the newly appointed Vice Principal of the Teachers' College to occupy it subject to the permission of Government and to the condition that he shall vacate it as soon as a European Vice-Principal of the Agricultural College is appointed. The house originally intended for the Vice Principal Teachers' College is now occupied by the Principal under G.O.No. 787 Educational, dated 27th November 1899.

Nothing is said in Mr. Braithwaite's agreement about free quarters but I consider this to be a mistake: the Vice Principal should live on the spot and should, like his predecessor, have the advantage of a rent-free house.

I therefore request Government to approve of my action and to pass orders permitting Mr. Braithwaite to occupy the house free of rent.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

G.H. Stuart
Director of Public Instruction.

C. No. 1343 From the Director of Public Instruction No. 5940 dated 25-8-1903.

SUBJECT.

Occupation by Mr. Braithwaite of the quarters built for the Vice-Principal, College of Agriculture.

Submitted that the Director's action in instructing Mr. Braithwaite to occupy the quarters built for the Vice-Principal of the College of Agriculture may be approved and orders may issue permitting Mr. Braithwaite to occupy the house free of rent. The absence of any provision for free quarters in Mr. Braithwaite's agreement is no doubt due to the fact that in the Director's letter to this Government and this Government's despatch to the Secretary of State asking for the selection of a person to fill the post of Vice-Principal of the Teachers' College, no mention was made of this subject. The intention however was that the Vice-Principal should live on the premises rent free. When a new Vice-Principal is selected for the agricultural college, Mr. Braithwaite will go to the Teachers' College and the Principal of that college will make his own arrangements for a house and receive the house-rent of Rs. 80 attached to that appointment.

Should this go to PWD for acceptance of the last sentence, or has the PWD no concern?

10-9-03

The PWD has no concern in this matter. The house was built for the Vice Principal of the Agricultural College and was intended to be occupied rent free. The PWD has therefore no concern about the actual occupant.

I think P.W.D. had better be asked whether they have any objection to the draft.

It is on the whole desirable that they should see any order of the sort proposed.
