To

The Chief Secretary to Government, Judicial Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to request that S. V. Sesha Charlu, Interpreter in my Court may be exempted from passing the Criminal Higher Grade Test for the following reasons:—

Owing to the recent death of the late Chief Clerk Thiruvengada Chary it becomes necessary to fill his place.

I am a great advocate for promoting deserving subordinates in the office rather than introducing outsiders to fill vacancies therein, the bringing in of outsiders (when unnecessary) seeming to me calculated to promote discontent and discourage those who have borne the heat and burden of the day, provided he is qualified. Sesha Charlu seems to me the most fitting person to succeed succeed the late Chief Clerk as he has been 29 years in Government service and has earned promotion, moreover I think he is competent to supervise the subordinates in this office and by his experience in influence to keep them upto the mark in performing their duties. Unfortunately however Sesha Charlu has not passed the examination in Criminal Higher Grade and therefore unless Government exempts him from passing that test he is disqualified from holding the post of Chief Clerk. I therefore solicit such exemption as a special indulgence. In making this request I venture to submit that Sesha Charlu's long practical experience as an Interpreter ^{almost by} attending Court for 21 years, renders him fairly conversant with criminal law and procedure and supplies the place of knowledge which an examination is presumed to indicate and I have every reason reason to believe he has acquired sufficient knowledge of criminal practice and procedure to enable him to perform the duties of Chief Clerk efficiently, in other respects I consider him quite competent to fill that office.

Pending the result of this application
I have appointed Tisha Chandra to act as Chief Clerk and I would respectfully request the exemption I crave to enable me to confirm him in such appointment for which I think he is the best man available in this office.

I have the honour to be
Sir,
Your most obedient servant

• In recommending for permanent exemption from passing the criminal judicial test, higher grade, one S.V. Seshachari, who has been promoted to the post of the Chief clerk in the Presidency Magistrate's Court, Mr. Clarke, the acting Chief Presidency Magistrate, observes that he is a great advocate for promoting deserving subordinates in the office rather than introducing outsiders to fill vacancies therein, that his nominee is eminently fitted for the post, ~~that~~ and is competent to supervise the subordinates in the office and to keep them up to the mark in performing their duties. He adds further that his nominee's long practical experience as an interpreter almost by daily attending Court for 21 years, renders him fairly conversant with criminal law and procedure and supplies the place of knowledge which an examination is presumed to indicate. ~~Submitted that~~ The applicant ^{also} has ^{had} nearly 29 years' service under Government and ^{it} is not likely that he shall continue very long in service. ~~to continue longer in the~~ In these ~~circumstances~~ ^{therefore} the exemption asked for may perhaps be granted.
