Municipal High School, Anantapur.—Reviewing inspection report on the — for 1901-1902

Dis. No. 6019.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION, dated 5th December 1902.

Municipal High School, Anantapur.

Read inspection report of the Inspector of Schools, Central Circle, No. 342-A (x), dated 1st August 1901.

Recorded.

2. Though there was an increase in the strength, the average daily attendance declined. Greater strictness should be exercised in the matter of attendance.

3. The pupils did fairly well at the public examinations and at the inspection. Telugu grammar, home exercises and drawing should receive more careful attention.

4. The school is working at an increasingly large profit to the management, and the propriety of discontinuing grants will be considered when the financial statement is reviewed. The figures given in table (a) do not tally with those in the financial statement. The discrepancy should be explained.

5. The tone and discipline of the school and its general condition were satisfactory.

Dis. No. 2095.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION, dated 8th April 1902.

American Mission High School, Punganuru, North Arcot.

Read inspection report of the Inspector of Schools, Central Circle, No. 874-N (a), dated 11th September 1901.

Recorded.

2. The second assistant would do well to qualify for the L.T. diploma.

3. The accommodation remains the same as in the previous year; and early steps should be taken to improve it.

4. The pupils did fairly well at the public examinations and at the inspection. The subjects in which poor and indifferent results were recorded should receive more careful attention.

5. It is observed that the loss of income from free scholarships was more than sufficient to meet the net cost of the institution.

6. The general condition and the tone and discipline of the school were good.

Sri Mahant's Hindu High School, Vellore, North Arcot.—Reviewing inspection report on — for 1901–1902.

Dis. No. 3032.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION, dated 4th June 1902.

Sri Mahant's Hindu High School, Vellore, North Arcot.

Read inspection report of the Inspector of Schools, Central Circle, No. 1044-N. (a), dated 1st November 1901.

Recorded.

2. It should be reported if M. R. Venkata Rao has passed the L.T. degree examination.

3. The results of the Matriculation examination were very bad, and the school cannot be said to have done well at the inspection.

4. Table (a) shows that the net cost to the management was Rs. 460, but as shown on page 13 of the report the income from fees is about Rs. 1,500 less than it would be if standard rates were charged in all classes. The school must therefore be considered to be making a profit and unless the surplus income be expended in making necessary improvements, grants will be withdrawn. The library is still inadequate, and the salaries of the staff should be increased.

5. It is of the utmost importance that more attention should be paid to the teaching of English in the Upper Secondary department. This is reported to be the weak point in the High School, and until some improvement is made, the school cannot be said to be in an efficient state.

Municipal High School, Walajapet, North Arcot.

Read inspection report of the Inspector of Schools, Central Circle, No. 972-N. (b), dated 12th October 1901.

Recorded.

2. It should be reported whether the first assistant passed the L.T. degree examination.

3. Early steps should be taken to supply the additional almirah required and to repair the air-pump.

4. The results of the inspection were fair, but more attention should be paid to English composition.

5. The financial condition of the institution is satisfactory, and as soon as funds permit the question of improving the salaries of the staff should be considered.

6. The tone and discipline of the school were good, and the efficient condition in which the institution is maintained is creditable to the headmaster.

Recorded.

2. As constituted at the time of inspection, the staff was not technically qualified. It is, however, reported that the unqualified assistants are endeavouring to secure professional certificates. The results of the practical test in the case of the first assistant should be reported.

3. The results of the public examination were not very satisfactory; those of the inspection were fair. More attention should be paid to map-drawing and English pronounciation.

Board High School, Chittoor, North Arcot.

Read inspection report of the Inspector of Schools, Central Circle, No. 1086-N (a), dated 15th November 1901.

Recorded.

2. The two uncertificated teachers should be required to qualify professionally at the earliest opportunity. The first and third forms which are too large to be managed by a single teacher should each be divided into two sections.

3. Early steps should be taken to improve the library and the accommodation which are both reported to be defective.

4. Poor results were obtained at the Matriculation examination; but at the inspection, the school did fairly well.

5. The net cost which is borne by Government fell by Rs. 247 during the year. This was mainly due to an increase in the fee-income.

6. It is hoped that the efficiency of the institution will be improved under the new headmaster.

Arcot Mission College, Vellore.

Read inspection report of the Inspector of Schools, Central Circle, No. 1013-N(a), dated 12th December 1901.

Recorded.

2. The defects in the accommodation reported last year still remain. It is noted that the Mission contemplate adding an upper storey to the building.

3. It is observed that the number of free-scholars was nearly double of what it was in the previous year, and that the loss of income through the grant of free-scholarships was more than the net cost. The institution thus worked at a profit during the year.

4. The results of the Matriculation examination were poor. Otherwise the condition of the college was satisfactory and its continued efficiency is creditable to the Principal and the staff.

Recorded.

2. The results of the public examinations were fair on the whole as were also those of the inspection. Drawing appears to have been neglected through the greater portion of the year. History requires to be more intelligently taught.

3. It is to be regretted that the number of free-scholars is still high and that some common understanding in regard to the levy of fees between this institution and the Mahant's school does not appear to be possible.

4. The tone and discipline of the school were good.

Recorded.

2. The average daily attendance was better than in the previous year but there is still room for further improvement.

3. It is presumed that measures are being taken to provide the school with a proper latrine.

4. The results of the Matriculation examination of 1900 were not satisfactory, though they were slightly above the average for the presidency. Those of the inspection were fair. English composition and arithmetic should receive more careful attention.

5. But for the large outlay on new buildings, the school would have been nearly self-supporting.

2. The appointment of an additional gymnastic instructor and an additional teacher for the second and first classes is noted. The name of the latter teacher, however, does not appear in table (b).

3. No reason has been assigned for the considerable fall in the strength; but considering the inadequacy of accommodation, the loss in numbers is hardly to be regretted. Column 7 of table (c) should have been totalled.

4. The results of the Matriculation examination showed no improvement; but at the other public examinations and at the inspection, the college did fairly well. The defects noted by the Inspector should receive attention. The students of the college department should be induced to take a greater interest in out-door games. It is observed that only four senior students play foot-ball.

2. No steps have yet been taken to improve the accommodation. The manager should be called upon to show cause why the recognition of the school should not be withdrawn.

3. The Inspector's remarks on page 15 are endorsed and the manager is strongly advised to take steps to gradually do away with the system of admitting pupils as free or partially free. The rates of fees given in column 13 of table (f) are apparently incorrect. The correct figures should be reported. In table (c), the figures entered in column 2 do not agree with those in the last report.

4. The results of the public examinations were an improvement on those of the previous year. The college, however, might have done better at the university examinations. The general efficiency of the institution as shown at the inspection was not satisfactory.

5. The omission on the part of the manager to reply to the points referred to in the last review should be explained.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION, dated 27th August 1901.

Wesleyan Mission High School, Tiruvallur, Chingleput District.

Read inspection report of the Inspector of Schools, Central Circle, No. 317 Ch. (a), dated 21st May 1901.

Recorded.

2. The library appears to be too small for a high school with a strength of nearly 200 boys. It should be improved by the addition of suitable books.

3. The strength had slightly declined during the year.

4. About half the number of pupils received concessions in the matter of fees and the loss of income caused thereby was Rs. 364. If this income had been realised the profit to the management would have been Rs. 309.

5. The results of the Matriculation and Lower Secondary examinations were not satisfactory, but those of the Primary were good. At the inspection the pupils, especially of the primary department, were found deficient in many subjects. It is hoped that better results will be shown next year.

6. The tone and discipline of the school were good.

Hindu High School, Madurantakam, Chingleput.

Read inspection report of the Inspector of Schools, Central Circle, No. 613-Ch. (a), dated 18th November 1901.

Recorded.

2. The results of the Matriculation examination were poor; but those obtained at the inspection were generally fair. English pronunciation and composition should receive more careful attention.

3. It is to be regretted that the Manager of the Wesleyan Mission school would come to no agreement in regard to the rate of school-fees. It is observed, however, that though the high school department has no rival in the town, the percentage of free scholars is unduly high. If fees be reckoned at standard rates the school is making a profit. This will be considered in connexion with the financial statement.

Free Church Mission High School, Chingleput.

Read inspection report of the Inspector of Schools, Central Circle, No. 616-Ch. (a), dated 19th November 1901.

Recorded.

2. The report is, on the whole, satisfactory, the results both of the public examinations and of inspection showing a perceptible improvement in the work of the institution. It is noted that there has been a reduction in the number of free scholars, but it is observed that there is still much room for a further enhancement of the fee income in this way. If fees be calculated at standard rates, the school is making a profit, and the question of reducing grants will be considered in reviewing the financial statement.

Recorded.

2. There was a satisfactory increase in the strength of the school, but the average daily attendance should have been better.

3. The results of the Matriculation examination were poor, but those obtained at the inspection were generally fair. Drawing should be taught in the sixth form.

4. It is observed that the percentage of free scholars is very high, and compares very unfavourably with that allowed in the other high school in the town. The figures in table (a) do not agree with those given in the financial statement. The discrepancies should be explained.

2. Steps should be taken to provide additional accommodation.

3. The school did well at the public examinations, but it is observed that nearly 50 per cent. of the pupils in the classes were not permitted to appear for them. This indicates that there is need for greater strictness in making admissions and promotions. The results of the inspection however were satisfactory.

4. Column 10 of table (f) has not been filled in. Information regarding the number of scholars and the rates of scholarships should now be given.

Recorded.

2. There was a change in the headmastership during the year, but the efficiency of the institution has been maintained. The fifth assistant should qualify for a professional certificate without further delay.

3. The strength and the daily attendance had declined slightly during the year. The accommodation is reported to be insufficient, but it is noted that steps are being taken to collect funds for a new building. A reduction in the very high percentage of free scholarships will help considerably in this direction, and the manager is advised to consider whether such a reduction cannot be effected.

2. The third and fourth assistants would do well to qualify professionally at the earliest opportunity.

3. A trapeze and rings should be supplied at an early date.

4. Better use should be made of the library both by teachers and pupils, and the stock of books should be increased by useful and suitable additions. The improvement of the library was suggested in last year's review, but nothing appears to have been done. The Manager should now utilise the surplus balances of the last two years amounting to Rs. 850 in effecting the improvements that have been suggested.

2. It is noted that the scale of fees has been slightly raised in the upper departments of the college and that there has been a reduction in the number of free-scholars. The net cost of the institution is, however, still high and as the increased fee-rates are still considerably lower than the standard rates, the manager may well consider whether the income may not be improved by a further increase in the scale of fees. If the two colleges in the locality come to some understanding as regards the scale of fees charged in both, the evil referred to by the Inspector on the last page of his report would not exist, and both institutions could be more efficiently worked.

3. Table (f) has again not been correctly filled in. The number of admissions by promotion should be the same as the number of withdrawals by promotion.

2. There was a marked increase in the total strength, but the average daily attendance and the attendance at the inspection were much too low.

3. Except at the Matriculation examination, generally fair results were obtained at the public examinations and at the inspection. Adam's Euclid, which is not an approved book, should not be used as a text-book.

4. The number of free scholars was slightly reduced, but it is still about a third of the strength. Taking into consideration the loss of income due to the grant of freescholarships and to the levy of fees at rates below the standard rates, the institution made a profit of Rs. 2,587. This amount after the usual deductions are made should be utilised in improvements in the school.

2. The staff is qualified. The remarks of the Inspector on table (b) are endorsed.

3. The results of the Matriculation examination and of the inspection were fair.

4. Including the opening balance the surplus amounted to Rs. 1,374; this should be utilised in effecting necessary improvements. An examination hall and a common room for the masters are reported to be necessary.

5. The tone and discipline of the school and its general condition were satisfactory.

2. The two uncertificated teachers should endeavour to complete their qualifications as soon as possible.

3. The strength of the school fell considerably during the year, but the fee-income improved notwithstanding. The percentage of free-scholars was still high and the Inspector's remarks against allowing further concessions in the matter of fees are fully endorsed.

4. The accommodation is reported to be insufficient and the playground unsuitable. These drawbacks should be removed as early as possible. The library also shall be improved.

5. The results of the Matriculation examination were poor; but the pupils did fairly well at the inspection.

6. The school worked at a profit during the year. With reference to the manager's remarks on page 5 of the report, it may be observed that in calculating the financial condition of the school the loss of income from the levy of fees below standard rates and from free-scholarships should be regarded as receipts. Taking this into account, there must be a larger surplus in favour of the school than is shown in table (a) and this should be spent in effecting necessary improvements.

2. It should be reported whether the headmaster has passed the practical test of the L.T. degree examination.

3. The strength of the school had declined during the year and there were only two pupils in the upper secondary department at the time of the inspection. If the strength of this department does not improve, the institution may well be worked as a lower secondary school at less cost.

4. Table (f) has been incorrectly drawn up. It contains no entries in column 5, and seeing there were only 30 admissions and 27 withdrawals during the term, it is not clear how the number on the rolls which was 29 at the beginning grew to 103 at the end of the term. Recorded.

2. No appreciable improvement had been effected in the qualifications of the staff. Five of the members of the staff were still professionally unqualified, and the general education qualification of the sixth and eighth assistants were below the requirements of the rules of recognition.

3. The strength of the school increased considerably during the year, but the average daily attendance was very low. As many as 21 pupils are reported to have left the school at the time of application for the Matriculation examination. It is presumed that they did so because they were not selected to appear for the examination. A note of explanation should have been entered on this point.

4. The results of the Matriculation examination were poor, but fair results were obtained at the Lower Secondary and Technical examinations. The pupils of the lower classes did not do well at the inspection. Home exercises and English composition should receive more careful attention. The use of unauthorized text-books should be at once discontinued. The Manager should consider the advisability of detaching the primary department and working it as a separate school. This will improve the accommodation for the secondary departments, which at present is reported to be inadequate.

5. The profit made during the year as shown in table (a) should be utilised in remedying the defects pointed out in table (g) of the report.

6. The tone and discipline of the school were fair, but its general condition left room for improvement.

2. The newly-appointed third assistant should be required to qualify professionally as soon as possible.

3. The school building is reported to be unsuitable for school purposes, and endeavours should be made to improve it as soon as funds permit. Some of the articles of furniture also require to be renewed.

4. The results of the Matriculation examination were poor, but those obtained at the Lower Secondary examination were very fair. The pupils of the lower forms did poorly in many subjects at the inspection. The Telugu prose text used in the fifth form should be replaced by an approved book.

2. The fourth assistant and the gymnastic instructor should show better work or be replaced by more competent men.

3. Generally fair results were obtained in the public examinations except the Matriculation, in which only two students passed out of 21 sent up. The inspection disclosed numerous defects which should receive the immediate attention of the staff.

4. The building is reported to be ill-ventilated and unsuitable. The latrine is not kept clean. The school has no play-ground and the space provided for the gymnasium is insufficient. The attention of the manager is drawn to these defects and the Director expects he will take early steps to remove them.

2. There were a few changes in the staff during the year. The appointment of S. A. Panchapakesa Iyer, B.A., L.T., as first assistant is noted.

3. It is hoped that early steps will be taken to utilise the provision made in next year's budget for improvements to the building.

4. No additions have been made to the library as suggested in last year's review, and the reason given is that, until the matter of supervision is looked into, it is mere waste of money to strengthen it. The Director fails to see why there should be so much difficulty in arranging for its proper supervision. The unsatisfactory condition in which it is kept is not creditable to the headmaster.

5. The strength has remained stationary for the last two years and the facts reported by the Inspector would seem to indicate that the popularity of the school is waning.

6. The registers were not properly maintained.

7. The results of the Matriculation examination were hardly satisfactory, and at the inspection the lower classes did badly, especially in English and Arithmetic. Drill and gymnastics had been utterly neglected, and this and the various other defects noticed point, as the Inspector observes, to a laxity of supervision on the part of the headmaster. The use of unauthorised text-books should be at once discontinued. Unless serious efforts are made to remedy the defects that have been pointed out, the Director will be compelled to withdraw recognition from the school.

8. The school again worked at a profit amounting to Rs. 2,072 as shown in table (a). This sum added to the balances of previous years may well be utilised in carrying out the improvements that have been suggested, and until this is done and the institution has been brought to a satisfactory condition the Director is unable to restore grants. Subject to the approval of the Director the profits of an institution may be spent in meeting deficits on others under the same management, but not until its own defects have been fully and properly remedied.

3. It is satisfactory that greater care is exercised in the matter of promotions. The construction of a hostel is also noted with pleasure.

4. Better use should be made of the library by the senior students of the college, and it should be enlarged by the addition of books suited for the lower departments. Columns 3 and 5 of table (f) have not been correctly filled in. The total number of admissions by promotion should be identical with the total number of withdrawals by promotion.

2. There was a large decrease in the strength of the college which is attributed to the opening of a rival school in the town.

3. The library should be enlarged by the addition of books suited for the lower classes. A reading-room should also be formed at an early date.

4. The attention of the manager is drawn to the defects noted by the Inspector at the end of the report and he is requested to see that steps are taken to remedy them. There can be no excuse for laxity in promotions. The Inspector's remark that the discipline of the college was very good is hardly borne out by the figures in table (c) of the report, from which it will be seen that more than a fourth of the number of pupils on the rolls were absent on the day of inspection and that the average daily attendance was very low. 3. The results of the Matriculation examination were fair, but less than half the class were sent up. At the inspection the school did badly. The explanation given of the generally unsatisfactory condition of the school is noted, but the existence of a rival school cannot be accepted as an excuse for relaxation of discipline. It is hoped that now that the institution is working under more favourable conditions, a better state of things will be shown next year.

4. The deficit of the previous year should not have been shown under receipts in table (a). It should be stated whether a debt was actually incurred to meet the deficit. The institution, it is understood, has an endowment, but no receipts from this source are shown either in table (a) or in the financial statement. Excluding the outlay on new buildings and taking into account the loss of income from free-scholarships and the levy of fees below standard rates, the school worked at a large profit during the year.

Read inspection report of the Inspector of Schools, Northern Circle, No. 9, dated 4th September 1901.

Recorded.

2. The fourth and fifth forms were newly opened in the year.

3. Provision should be at once made for the teaching of drawing. It is presumed that the sixth assistant has been permitted by the Inspector to be in charge of the first form.

4. The school has no latrine and should be provided with one without further delay.

5. The library should now be enlarged so as to be suitable for a high school.

6. The results of the inspection and of the public examinations except the primary, were not very satisfactory. Handwriting seems to have been entirely neglected.

7. The tone and discipline of the school were fair.

Hindu High School, Masulipatam.

Read inspection report of the Inspector of Schools, Northern Circle, No. 12, dated 22nd September 1901.

Recorded.

2. As required in the previous year's review the sixth assistant should endeavour to secure a professional certificate.

3. Judging from the poor results obtained at the Matriculation examination and the defects disclosed at the inspection, the Inspector was of opinion that the institution had deteriorated in efficiency during the year. It is to be hoped he will find matters more satisfactory at the next inspection.

4. The management lost much of its fee income owing to the large number of free scholars, which, instead of being kept down, was allowed to rise. Taking this loss of income into account the institution should be regarded as having made a profit. Early steps should be taken to repair the building which is said to be in a dilapidated condition.

5. The tone and discipline of the school were fair; but its general condition left much room for improvement.

4. At the Matriculation examination not one of the ten pupils sent up passed; but at the Lower Secondary examination and the inspection very fair results were obtained.

Dis. No. 3675.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION, dated 11th July 1902.

Harris High School, Rayapet, Madras.

Read inspection report of the Inspector of Schools, Central Circle, No. 18-M (a), dated 15th January 1902.

Recorded.

2. The strength of the school was practically stationary during the year.

3. The results of the Matriculation examination compared very unfavourably with those of the previous year. Those of the primary and drawing examinations were good. At the inspection the school did poorly in several subjects more especially in the lower forms and classes. Composition, both in English and second language, and drawing in the lower secondary and primary departments should receive more attention.

4. The tone and discipline of the school and its general condition were satisfactory.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION, dated 8th November 1902.

San Thome College, Mailapur, Madras.

Read inspection report of the Inspector of Schools, Central Circle, No. 297-M (a), dated 26th May 1902.

Recorded.

2. The inspection having taken place during the current official year, the figures in table (a) should, as its heading indicates, have been for the official year 1901–1902 and not for the year 1900–1901. A revised table giving the correct figures should be submitted.

3. Early steps should be taken to renew the furniture as suggested by the Inspector and the library should also be gradually enlarged.

4. The results of the public examinations and of the inspection were fairly good. The large number of absentees on the day of inspection and the low average daily attendance would indicate laxity of discipline. Greater regularity of attendance should be insisted on. The general condition of the school continued to be satisfactory.

2. The report for the year is hardly more satisfactory than that for the previous year. The suggestions made in last year's review have not been carried out.

3. The results of the public examinations and of the inspection were poor, though slightly better than those of the previous year. Drawing, a compulsory subject, in the sixth form should be introduced without further delay.

4. Strenuous efforts should be made to remedy the defects noticed by the inspector, and to effect improvements in the directions he has indicated in his reports for the last two years.

2. The qualifications of the staff should be further improved so as to satisfy the requirements of the rules of recognition.

3. In table (a), the sum of Rs. 252 is entered under scholarship grants. As the entry apparently relates to Government scholarships, it should have been omitted from both sides of the statement.

4. The suggestions made by the Inspector on pages 13, 39 and 40 are endorsed. It is hoped that early steps will be taken to start a reading-room and to appoint a tutor as suggested in the last review.

5. The school did satisfactorily in the public examinations and at the inspection. The tone and discipline and the general condition of the institution were also good.

2. The reduction in the number of free scholars is noted. It is also observed that scholarships for pupils in the fifth and sixth forms were given during the year. The number and rates of these scholarships should have been shown in column 10 of table (f). Scholarships sanctioned under the Government notification should have been omitted from table (a).

3. The results of the Matriculation examination were fair, but compared unfavourably with those of the previous year. The results of the inspection were better in the secondary department than in the primary. More attention should be paid to the teaching of science in the high school classes, and the suggestions of the Inspector in regard to the apparatus and appliances connected with this subject are endorsed.

4. Better use should be made of the library by the pupils. This defect in the school was pointed out last year. The remedy lies largely in the hands of the masters.

5. The tone and discipline of the school were good.

2. The first and fourth assistants would do well to qualify for the L.T. diploma.

3. The strength of the school rose considerably during the year, and the fourth form was too large to be managed by a single teacher. It is hoped that a temporary additional assistant will soon be appointed, and that if there is a probability of the strength of the school remaining as high as it is now, steps will be taken to provide the additional accommodation and furniture reported to be necessary in consequence of the increase in numbers.

4. The results of the Matriculation examination were poor, but those obtained at the inspection were fair. Drawing should be introduced into the sixth form at once.

2. No steps have yet been taken to make the staff satisfy the requirements of the rules.

3. The results of the University examinations were still indifferent, but those of the inspection were satisfactory. The tone and discipline of the institution continued to be good.

4. The entries in table (a) under expenditure on teaching staff, furniture, apparatus, &c., and other heads do not agree with the corresponding entries in the financial statement. The sum of Rs. 300 shown on the receipts side under scholarship grants apparently represents scholarships drawn under the Government notification. If so, it should have been omitted from the table. The absence of any expenditure under this head should be explained.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION, dated 12th November 1902.

Church of Scotland Mission College, Madras.

Read inspection report of the Inspector of Schools, Central Circle, No. 152-M (a), dated 3rd May 1902.

Recorded.

2. Nearly a fifth of the total number of pupils on the rolls were absent at the inspection. Greater regularity of attendance on the part of the pupils should be enforced. Some of the classes are too large for efficient instruction, the sixth form in particular which may be split up into four divisions.

3. Some of the younger members on the staff are unqualified. They would do well to qualify professionally as soon as possible. Endeavours should be made to infuse into the minds of the pupils a taste for general reading, so that the large library in the College might be used to the fullest advantage.

4. Except at the First examination in Arts, the results were an improvement on those of the previous year. There should be no further delay in introducing drawing into the sixth form. The excuse that there is no time for it is hardly acceptable seeing that the subject is taught in the sixth form in other schools. As the form is large an additional drawing-master should be appointed, if necessary. Geometry and Algebra should not be taught in lower secondary forms.

5. The figures given in table (a) of the report do not agree with those in the financial statement submitted by the manager. The matter should be explained.

6. The tone and discipline of the College were good and the general efficiency of the institution was maintained during the year.

2. There were a few changes in the staff, the most important being the appointment of a new lady-principal.

3. The school declined in strength during the year and the average daily attendance was low.

4. Government scholarships drawn on behalf of pupils and disbursed to them should not be shown in table (a) of the report, in which only scholarship grants should be entered.

5. No pupils were sent up for the Matriculation examination, but the results of the other public examinations were good, while those of the inspection were very fair. The teaching of History, Chemistry and English was defective and should be made more efficient.

6. The discipline of the school was good and its condition on the whole very fair. The defects noticed in tone will, it is hoped, receive the attention of the manager.

2. The third assistant is unqualified. It should be reported whether the second, fifth and eighth assistants have passed the practical test for teachers' certificates. The addition to the general teaching staff is noted, but the sewing mistress appears to have been dispensed with.

3. There was a satisfactory increase in the strength of the school.

4. In table (a) the amount of scholarships received was Rs. 264, while the expenditure was less than Rs. 100. It should be reported how the difference was spent. Excluding expenditure on new buildings and boarding receipts and charges, the net cost to the management was Rs. 122 against Rs. 525 in the previous year.

5. At the Matriculation examination, the results were not very satisfactory, but those of the inspection were on the whole good. Kindergarten occupations in class I, arithmetic in class IV, and algebra in form IV, were not efficiently taught. The attention of the manager is drawn to the remarks of the Inspectress on the manners and tone of the school.

St. Patrick's Orphanage, Adyar (Literary Branch).

2. The salaries paid to the first, second and third assistants are much too high for the standards they teach. In no other institutions in the Presidency is the teacher of the third form paid Rs. 225 or the teacher of the first form Rs. 120, or a teacher in the primary school Rs. 90. The Director therefore resolves to consider the question of reducing the grants drawn for the first and second assistants to amounts calculated on more reasonable rates of pay.

3. The strength of the upper secondary department continues to be very poor and during the year under report it was only five. It should be reported whether pupils of the upper secondary classes are trained for the medical, telegraph or railway service, and if so, how many have passed for these services during the last three years.

3. The strength of the school had slightly fallen and the average daily attendance had deteriorated since the previous inspection. This is to be regretted.

4. The omission of the necessary entries in column 8 of table (f) should be explained. The financial statement shows that the loss of income from the grant of free scholarships and levy of fees below standard rates was Rs. 2,878.

5. The school acquitted itself fairly well in all the public examinations except the Matriculation. The results of the inspection were not altogether satisfactory especially in English and Mathematics, which should receive more careful attention.

2. G. Gnanaprakasam, the teacher newly appointed, should be required to qualify professionally at an early date. It should be reported whether the drawing master is preparing for the Intermediate Examination in drawing.

3. Better use should have been made of the library. The supply of gymnastic apparatus is still deficient. There should be no further delay in furnishing the school with the apparatus required.

4. Fair results were obtained at the public examinations, but the inspection disclosed numerous defects. Sufficient attention has not been paid especially to English composition, mathematics and physics and to the proper correction of note-books and home-exercises. The improvement in gymnastics is noted.

5. The net cost of the institution according to table (a) for the year 1900–1901 was Rs. 1,501, but taking into account the loss of income from free scholarships, viz., Rs. 2,757, there should have been a profit of over Rs. 1,200 available for effecting the improvements that have been suggested in regard to the apparatus and accommodation of the school. 2. The first and second assistants were unqualified. It should be reported whether the first assistant has passed the practical test for the L.T. diploma. The omission from table (b) of the name of S. Samuel who was one of the teachers last year should have been explained.

3. The accommodation is still insufficient. It should be reported whether any steps have been taken towards the construction of the new building referred to in last year's report. There was an increase in the number on the rolls, but the average daily attendance was rather low.

4. The sum of Rs. 316 representing Government scholarships should have been omitted from the receipts and expenditure sides of table (a).

5. The results of the Matriculation examination were fair as also were those of the inspection. 2. The extra assistants should secure professional certificates as soon as possible. It should be explained why no steps were taken to employ a certificated drawing-master as required in the last review.

3. The strength of the school increased considerably during the year, but the average daily attendance and the attendance at the inspection were low. More attention should be paid to the regular attendance of the pupils.

4. There seems to be no limit to the number of free scholars. While 59 per cent. of the pupils are returned as belonging to the poorer classes, about 82 per cent. were either wholly or partially free. The Manager should endeavour to reduce the percentage which is unusually high.

5. A proper latrine should be constructed without further delay.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION, dated 8th April 1902.

2. As suggested by the Inspector, the first and eighth assistants should be required to undergo training.

3. Columns 3 and 5 of table (f) have again not been correctly filled in, the entry in column 3 against the Junior F.A. class not being consistent with that in column 5 against the sixth form. This should be explained, as well as the difference between the total expenditure as given in financial statement B and that as given in table (a) of the report.

4. The results of the Matriculation examination were, like those of the previous year, extremely poor, and Mr. Barrow considers that the blame for the extraordinarily bad outturn does not rest with the teachers. Whatever the failure may be due to, it is obvious that some discretion should be exercised in presenting pupils for the examination. It may safely be presumed that in a large class of 160 boys there were some who were not qualified to appear. The Director hopes that the presentation of pupils for the examination will, in future, be more judiciously made and that the next report will show an improvement. At the F.A. examination, the college did better than in the year previous.

5. Mr. Logan's remarks on the last page of the report and in table (a) are endorsed and the Director would impress on the Municipal Council the urgent necessity for carrying out the suggestions therein made. The efficiency of the college continued to be maintained.

4. The accommodation is reported to be insufficient and the latrine is said to be too near the school. Endeavours should be made to remedy these defects as soon as possible.

5. The loss of income from free-scholarships and levy of fees below the standard rates was more than three times the net cost to the management. The question whether grants should be continued will therefore be considered in reviewing the financial statement of the school.

2. The tenth and eleventh assistants may with advantage qualify for professional certificates.

3. It is observed that no use has been made of the library by the pupils. The teachers should encourage their pupils to read books other than their text-books, and thus form in them a taste for general reading.

4. Column 9 of table (c) should not have been left blank. If there are no pupils unprotected, the fact should be stated.

5. The use of Adam's Euclid should be discontinued as it has been rejected by the Text Book Committee.

2. The unqualified assistants should endeavour to secure professional certificates without further delay. The Inspector's suggestions under table (b) are endorsed.

3. No additions have been made to the library for the past two years. It should be enlarged as soon as possible with suitable books and the teachers should see that the pupils make good use of it.

4. There was a marked accession to the strength of the school. The second form is too large to be managed by a single teacher and should be split up into two sections.

5. The results of the public examinations were hardly satisfactory. The fact that half the pupils in the classes were not found qualified to appear for the examinations points to laxity in making promotions. The school did fairly on the whole at the inspection. Physical education appears to have been neglected, and the attention of the staff is directed to the defects detailed on the last two pages of the report. It is hoped that better results will be shown next year.

Raja V. Muthukrishna's High School, Venkatagiri Town, Nellore.

Read inspection report of the Inspector of Schools, Northern Circle, No. 32, dated 29th January 1902.

Recorded.

2. The opening of the sixth form during the year is noted.

3. The particulars required in column 8 of table (b) have not been given. The gymnastic instructor has been trained but has passed no examination and has no certificates. He should qualify without further delay. It is observed also that instruction in drawing is entrusted to the gymnastic instructor who has passed no examination in the subject. A properly qualified drawing-master should be appointed at once.

4. The air-pump should be repaired and the additional furniture required should be supplied at an early date.

5. The library was still small and required to be improved. A reading-room should be opened as soon as possible.

6. Owing to the absence of the headmaster, the school deteriorated in efficiency, and important subjects appear to have been neglected. It is hoped that next year's report will show an improvement.

7. The tone and discipline of the school continued to be satisfactory.

Venkatagiri Rajah's High School, Nellore.

2. It is noted that some of the suggestions made in the last review have been carried out, and it is hoped that there will be no unnecessary delay in doing what still remains to be done.

3. The poor attendance at the inspection has been explained.

4. It is observed that the enlargement of the school-house has been taken in hand. The work should, if possible, be completed in the course of the year.

5. The results of the public examinations were generally fair; but most of the forms, particularly the third, did badly at the inspection, and the Inspector was of opinion that the condition of the institution showed a deterioration in many points. Arrangements should be made to appoint a writing-master, and more attention should be paid to the physical education of the pupils, which appears to have been neglected, and to out-door games. The Director trusts that, under the guidance of the new headmaster, matters will improve, and that the next inspection will show more satisfactory results.

6. The tone and discipline of the school were good.

3. The large increase in the strength of the college is satisfactory.

4. Steps should be taken to enlarge the library and more use should be made of it. Another latrine is necessary and should be constructed at once.

5. The results of the University examinations were not very satisfactory. Composition and mathematics should receive greater attention. The pupils should be encouraged to take a greater interest in outdoor games.

6. Though the efficiency of the institution was fairly maintained during the year, there was room for improvement in several points as indicated by the Inspector, whose remarks and suggestions, it is hoped, will receive due attention.

2. There were several changes in the staff which should have been reported when they occurred. The unqualified assistants should be required to qualify professionally at an early date.

3. There was a slight fall in the strength of the school, and there were no pupils at all in the fifth and sixth forms.

4. The results of the Matriculation and the Lower Secondary examinations as well as those at the inspection were fair.

5. Owing apparently to considerable reductions in the fee-rates there was a fall in the fee-income and the net cost to the management rose from Rs. 1,316 to Rs. 2,336. Fees and grants covered about 67 per cent. of the total expenditure which amounted to Rs. 7,166.

Recorded.

2. Staff.—Several changes occurred in the teaching staff which have not been reported to this office. The omission to do so should be explained. The sixth assistant should qualify for a professional certificate.

3. Strength and attendance.—The strength fell during the year not by 14 as stated by the Inspector, but by 4. The entry opposite the fourth form in column 2 of the table is incorrect.

4. Library.—The teachers do not appear to have made any use of the library.

5. Public Examinations.—The results of the Matriculation and Lower Secondary examinations of December 1900 were fair as were also those of inspection.

6. The suggestions made by the Inspector in the previous year's report in regard to the preparation of table (a) have not been carried out. It is necessary, if the net cost of the institution is to be correctly shown, that the items of receipt and expenditure on account of boarding and lodging should be kept distinct from those connected with education. The Director hopes that this will be done in future.

7. It is hoped there will be no further delay in the introduction of drawing into the sixth form. The tone and discipline of the school were good and its general condition was satisfactory.

3. The institution had improved in strength, but the average attendance continued to be low.

4. The school did on the whole satisfactorily both at the public examinations and at the inspection.

5. The financial condition had improved during the year. With a reduction in the number of free scholars, which at present is rather large, the institution may be made very nearly self-supporting. Columns 3 and 5 of table (f) should have been filled in.

2. There were several changes in the staff which, however, does not yet strictly fulfil the conditions of recognition. It is desirable that the Headmaster, who is a graduate, should qualify for the L.T. diploma. The arrangement for the teaching of drawing is unsatisfactory. A qualified drawing master should be appointed.

3. Poor use was made of the library, both by the training and practising sections. If this is due to the fact that the books are not suitable or attractive, steps should be taken to remedy the defect.

4. The manager's proposal to improve the accommodation which is considered insufficient is noted.

5. The further fall from six to four in the strength of the training section is to be regretted. Only a single student was of the lower secondary grade. Leaving out of account the unrecognised fourth form newly opened, the strength of the practising section remained stationary at 124. The training section being of the lower secondary grade, classes infant to fourth only should in future be treated as constituting the practising section.

6. The school showed very fair results at the public examinations and at the inspection.

7. One of the students of the last batch remained unemployed at the time of the inspection, and three out of the four under training had no assurance of an appointment on the completion of their training course. It is hoped that there will be no difficulty in finding employment for them.

2. Many of the suggestions made in the last review have yet to be carried out. The accommodation has not been improved, an assistant gymnastic instructor whose services the growing strength of the college demands has not been appointed, and a separate latrine for masters which the Inspector considers necessary has not been provided. It is hoped that very early steps will be taken to remedy these defects. A full time scavenger should also be appointed and more gymnastic apparatus should be supplied.

3. Considering the financial prosperity of the institution, the Inspector's suggestion to raise the scale of salaries of the staff is strongly recommended. If the profit made is not expended on the college, in a manner approved by the Director, grants will be suspended. The improvement in the tone and discipline of the college is noted with pleasure. The results obtained in the public examinations were on the whole satisfactory.

4. In future reports, the amount received from Government in the shape of Government scholarships should not be shown in table (a) either under receipts or under expenditure.

2. The Director is glad to observe that the members of the staff worked more harmoniously together than they did in the previous year. The results of the public examinations and of the inspection, however, show that the work of the teachers is still wanting in efficiency. The graduates on the staff should wear their gowns while teaching.

3. Notwithstanding the increase in the total strength of the school the average daily attendance had deteriorated during the year. Promotions should be more strictly regulated.

4. The large balance now to the credit of the school should be spent in improving the accommodation and enlarging the library. Grants will be withdrawn next year if the improvements suggested are not carried out.

2. The two uncertificated assistants would do well to qualify for professional certificates at the earliest opportunity.

3. Steps should be taken to improve the accommodation which is reported to be insufficient.

4. Better use should be made of the library.

5. Fair results were shown at the public examinations and at the inspection. Handwriting, science and drawing should receive more careful attention. The use of unauthorized books should be given up at once.

6. Nearly 57 per cent. of pupils were either wholly or partially free, and the loss of income in consequence was heavy.

7. The school is in a fairly efficient condition. The headmaster should see that the pupils wear some neat form of head dress.

Read inspection report of the Inspector of Schools, Southern Circle, No. 160-C, dated 15th November 1901.

2. It should be explained why no steps were taken to appoint an assistant gymnastic instructor as required in last year's review. It should also be reported whether the sixth assistant is preparing for the L. T. degree examination. The Inspector's suggestion in regard to the appointment of a separate headmaster for the primary department is endorsed. This department is now large enough to be made a separate school.

3. The unprotected pupils should be required to get vaccinated at once. Such pupils should not have been admitted.

4. The results of the public examinations and of the inspection were generally fair. The attention of the staff is invited to the defects detailed on the last page of the report.

5. It is noted that the building has been enlarged since the previous inspection. The accommodation is however reported to be still insufficient, and the profit made during the year should be spent in improving it.

6. The registers were not properly kept. The original acquittance roll, or a copy of it, properly attested by the chairman, should be produced for inspection. A scholarship register should be maintained whether the scholarships are drawn from municipal or provincial funds. The headmaster should see that proper entries are made in the prescribed columns of the gymnastic register. It is also desirable to maintain a stock book. In regard to the re-admissions referred to by the headmaster the procedure adopted by him as described in paragraph 2 (i) of his letter, No. 414, dated 29th November 1901, is correct.

7. The tone and discipline of the school and its general condition were, on the whole, fair.

2. The endeavours made by the graduate members of the staff to qualify for professional certificates are noted. It is hoped that ere long all the assistants, who are not qualified by service, will be in possession of teachers' certificates corresponding to the grade of their general education qualifications. The work of the drawingmaster is reported to be unsatisfactory. If he cannot do better he should be replaced by a more competent man. The changes in the staff should have been reported in the prescribed form.

3. There was a very satisfactory increase in the strength of the school, and the attendance at the inspection was good.

4. Better use should have been made of the library; a very small addition was made to it during the year.

5. In table (a) the sum of Rs. 923 (stipends) which, as would appear from table (f), was really the loss of income from free scholarships should not have been shown as expenditure. The nature of the instruction for which special fees, were charged as shown in table (f), should have been stated.

6. Very fair results were obtained at the public examinations and at the inspection. The attention of the manager is invited to the defects detailed on the last page of the report.

2. T. C. Shunmugam Pillai is educationally qualified to be in charge of upper secondary classes.

3. Notwithstanding the increase in the number on rolls, the average daily attendance had deteriorated. Incorrect entries have again been made in columns 3 and 5 of table (f). This should have been noticed in the Inspector's office.

4. Considering the percentage of passes to the number on the rolls on the date of application, the results of the matriculation were poor, and the figures for the past three years show a gradual deterioration. Greater strictness in admissions and promotions would appear to be needed. The results of the inspection were generally fair. The remarks made on the last page of the report should receive careful attention.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION, dated 5th December 1902.

St. Peter's College, Tanjore.

Read the following letter from the Revd. W. H. BLAKE, B.A., Principal, St. Peter's College, Tanjore, to the Director of Public Instruction, Madras, dated 30th July 1902, No. 42:—

I have the honour to forward a report of St. Peter's College, Tanjore, for the year 1901–1902.

Staff.—The staff remained the same as in the preceding year and was as follows:—

„ T. Muthukumara Moopanar, B.A., Collegiate, untrained.

„ N. Sundaram Iyer, B.A., L.T., trained.
„ S. Daniel, B.A., L.T., trained.

„ M. Lakshmana Sastry, Sanskrit pandit.
„ K. Ramasamy Iyer, Assistant Sanskrit pandit.

2. Strength.—There was an increase of 24 in the strength, the number on the rolls having risen from 109 to 133. The increase has been only in the junior F.A. class, and is chiefly due to the improved results last year in this centre of the Matriculation examination, owing to which there were 60 admissions in the junior F.A. class—an increase of 27 on the number on the rolls the year before. In the senior F.A. class the number remained the same 40. In the senior college department owing to poor F.A. results, only 12 joined the junior class, and the number in the department was reduced from 36 to 33.

Of the 133 on the rolls, 100 are Brahmans, 15 Sudras, 18 Native Christians; there are again no Muhammadans. The numbers the previous year were 88, 7, 14 and 0, respectively. There has therefore been a larger increase proportionally in the numbers of the Sudras and Native Christians, and the non-Brahman students have risen to nearly 25 per cent.

The increase in numbers having been entirely of local students as indicated above, the number of students from the Tanjore district has risen from 95 to 120, of whom 45 have homes in the town. The number from other districts remains at 13—4 from Tinnevelly, 3 each from Madras and South Arcot, 2 from Pudukkóttai and 1 from Coimbatore.

3. Boarding.—The numbers boarding in the Brahman hostel have increased from 12 to 22, owing to arrangements having been made the last term for the accommodation of Vaishnava as well as Smartha Brahmans. Of the 18 Christian students, 14 are boarding in the Christian hostel. Of the remaining 96, 92 have homes in the town, or are living with relatives, and 5 are boarding in other houses.

4. Examinations.—The results of the B.A. examination last year were fair considering the strength and quality of the class.

138

In the English branch ten appeared and five passed. In the second language eight appeared, seven in Tamil and one in Sanskrit, and all passed. In this branch D. Gnanathickam, a student of the college, stood first in the examination and was the only candidate who gained a first class. He was therefore awarded the Franklin Gell Gold medal. In the science branch eight also appeared—four in branch IV and four in branch V—and two in each branch were successful.

Six students of the college completed their B.A. course and took their degree.

D. Gnanathickam, in addition to the medal for Tamil, received also the Madras Native Christian Association medal for English.

In the F.A. examination 15 passed out of 40 with two in the first class.

In the College annual examination in the junior B.A. class the results were fair in English, good in Tamil, but poor in both the science branches; in the junior F.A. the results in English and mathematics were not so good as in the other subjects, but the class on the whole did fairly and all students were promoted to the higher class.

In the science branches of the B.A. examination, there are 12 taking up philosophy—8 in the senior and 4 in the junior—and 21 taking up history—13 in the senior and 8 in the junior.

5. The library and reading-room have been well used by masters and students; and the meetings of the Debating and Literary Associations have been regularly and well kept up. The students' interest in these is shown by the opening of several new branch literary associations by the students in different parts of the town.

The junior B.A. and junior F.A. class students have, as usual, been required to attend the drawing class and have made fair progress. The numbers in the special drawing class this year is not so large; but the results of the class last year were satisfactory—two passing in the free-hand intermediate grade, four in the elementary grade.

6. The attendance in the gymnasium for all classes for drill or gymnastics continues compulsory. The interest in gymnastics was, for a time, a little checked by an accident to one of the students, but this fortunately did not prove very serious. The play-ground has not been so well attended partly owing to the inability to arrange any matches partly to the boys joining some of the numerous private clubs. In the annual inter-school sports in the town the college maintained its credit.

7. Finance.—The total expenditure for the year was Rs. 14,266–6–10. The receipts from fees amounted to Rs. 6,668–15–10, the salary grant-in-aid was Rupees 3,427–8–0 and the Schwartz grant Rs. 2,400, making the total receipts Rupees 12,496–7–10. The deficit for the year on the working of the institution thus was Rs. 1,769–15–1, that for the previous year being Rs. 2,075–9–0½. This year there is a slight decrease under "salaries," owing to the successor of the late Mr. Rangasamy Iyer not having the same service and salary as he had, and a slight increase in the Government grants owing to the arrears of grant stopped on Mr. Rangasamy's death being drawn this year. The fee income shows only an increase of Rs. 46–8–2 on that of the previous year, but the loss of income by not levying the full Government rate of fees was reduced from Rs. 626–2–0 to Rs. 243–0–2.

Proceedings, Dis. No. 6004 of 1902.

Recorded.

2. There was no change in the personnel of the staff during the year.

3. There was a marked increase in the strength of the college, chiefly confined to the junior F.A. class.

4. The results of the B.A. examinations except in the philosophy branch compared favourably with those of the previous year, but smaller numbers were presented for the examination in all branches except history. At the First examination in Arts, the college did poorly passing 37 per cent. against 54 per cent. out of a larger number in the previous year.

5. There was a fall in the attendance in the special drawing class, and the athletic clubs do not appear to have worked satisfactorily. Endeavours should be made to induce the students to take greater interest in the clubs attached to their college than in those outside it.

6. The increase in the number of Brahman students resident in the hostel is noted with pleasure. It is observed that only five of the students of the college board in houses outside the college. It is presumed that these houses have been approved by the college authorities.

7. The working of the college during the year was fairly satisfactory. It is requested that in future reports the numerical statistics relating to strength, attendance and results of examination for the year and those for the previous year be shown in tables appended to the report.

6. The results of the Matriculation examination were poor. The pupils did badly in mathematics and hand-writing at the inspection. Home-exercises should receive more careful attention.

2. Joseph David may, with advantage, be required to qualify for the L. T. diploma.

3. It is noted with regret that there was a further decline in the strength of the school.

4. Very little use was made of the library by the pupils. From the remarks made by the Inspectress in the previous year's report, it would appear that more suitable books are required.

5. Steps should be taken without further delay to improve the accommodation which has, during the past three years, been reported to be insufficient.

6. The results of the Matriculation examination were an improvement on those of the previous year. At the inspection, the pupils did fairly on the whole. English and Mathematics need mo re attention.

7. The tone of the school continued to be good, but its discipline was still unsatisfactory. There should be no difficulty in remedying the defects in this respect pointed out by the Inspectress.

2. There has been a considerable increase in the strength, and an additional assistant should be appointed for the infant standard which is now too large to be managed by two teachers. The staff which includes only one graduate should also be strengthened when vacancies occur by the appointment of trained licentiates in teaching. The inspector's remarks on table (b) are endorsed. Drawing should be taught in the high school, and a drawing master should be appointed.

3. Early measures should be taken to put up a substantial latrine and to provide for a water-supply. It is also necessary that the play-ground should be extended.

4. The library requires to be enlarged, and better use should be made of it.

5. The results of the Matriculation examination were disappointing; but those obtained at the other public examinations and at the inspection were generally fair.

2. The unqualified teachers on the staff should be required to qualify at an early date.

3. The steady increase in strength during the last two years is satisfactory. There has also been an improvement in the results of the University examinations which is creditable to the teachers concerned. The Inspector was not favourably impressed however with the general efficiency of the institution, the results of his inspection not being as good as might be expected. English grammar and composition seemed to be weak points in the high school, and there was a lack of careful and systematic work in connection with the home exercises of the pupils. Handwriting was poor in the lower school, and the committee will do well to appoint an additional instructor as suggested by the Inspector.

4. Columns 3 and 5 of table (f) of the report for the current year have not been correctly filled in and in table (a) the expenditure on the library is shown as Rs. 144-7-3 while the financial statement gives it as Rs. 114-7-3. This discrepancy should be explained.

5. The Inspector is requested to address the Director separately in regard to the payment of aid to the school from municipal funds instead of from provincial funds as hitherto.

The National High School, Srirangam.

Read inspection report of the Inspector of Schools, Southern Circle, No. 276-Tr., dated 4th April 1902.

2. The third assistant should be required to qualify professionally.

3. The marked increase in the strength of the school is noted.

4. The library which is much too small for a high school should be strengthened as soon as possible.

5. The results of the Lower Secondary examination and of the inspection were fair. More attention should be paid to English composition. Provision should be made as soon as possible for out-door games, and physical exercises should be better attended to.

6. The tone and discipline of the school were fair, but its general condition left room for improvement.

St. Joseph's College, Trichinopoly.—Reviewing report on the working of — for the calendar year 1901.

Dis. No. 3116.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION, dated 19th May 1903.

St. Joseph's College, Trichinopoly.

Read the following letter from the Manager, St. Joseph's College, Trichinopoly, to the Director of Public Instruction, Madras, dated 22nd September 1902, No. 151.

I have the honour to submit my annual report for the year ending 31st December 1901.

2. Strength.—The annexed table shows our comparative numbers for this and the preceding calendar years. The change to the calendar year has been made in accordance with the suggestion contained in paragraph 6 of your Proceedings, Dis. No. 2100 of 8th April 1902. Consequently the numbers for the year 1900 will not correspond with those given in last year's report for 1900–1901, but, will represent our numbers during the period between 1st January and 31st December 1900; while the numbers now shown for the year 1901 embrace the period from 1st January to 31st December 1901:—

Table 1.

	1900.			1901.

Lower ,, ...	81	73	65	87	82	73
Total ..	1,425	1,472	1,293	1,403	1,418	1,257
Percentage of attendance		87·84			88·65

As the period reviewed last year covers an important portion of the period now under review, many of the remarks of last year's report are applicable to the present report. Thus the fall of 18 in the general total is to be attributed to the causes spoken of in paragraphs 4 and 5 of last year's report, viz., a misunderstanding on the part of parents in respect to the Lower Secondary examination, and need not be recapitulated here.

3. Attendance.—The percentage of attendance shows an improvement, but the increase in the percentage for the year ending 31st December 1900 over that shown in last year's report for 1900–1901, which embraced nine months of this same period and included three months of the present year, seems to indicate, as might be expected, that the attendance is less favourable at the beginning of a year. Many students whose names are still on the rolls in January and February and are marked absent, subsequently apply for leaving certificates and are then struck off, and these spoil the average attendance, for, in reality, they were not, properly speaking, absent but had ceased to belong to the college.

4. The next table which exhibits the distribution of students in the college classes needs, seeing the principal fluctuations were accounted for last year, no other remark than that there has been the usual fall in the numbers of the Junior classes towards the end of the year, and this represents the failures who give up the attempt to prosecute the course.

Distribution of students in the college classes:—

Table 2.

	1900.	1901.
Senior B.A.	71	75
Junior B.A.	54	65
Senior F.A.	85	74
Junior F.A.	54	57

5. Distribution of students according to their science divisions—

Total ..	17	43	34	31	28	47	42	35

Mental and Moral Science and Mathematics are the favourite subjects this year, but there having been a rise in the ranks of the Junior B.A., the other subjects each claim nearly as numerous a batch as last year.

6. Percentage of Brahmans.—The fall in the percentage of Brahmans was explained last year and it would be superfluous to recapitulate what I said then.

As to the sources whence our pupils are drawn, the local and surrounding sources show a slight increase. Of other sources, Coimbatore alone shows any remarkable falling off. It will be noted that this occurs in the Lower Secondary department and is presumably attributable to the causes referred to in paragraphs 4 and 5 of last year's report.

7. Changes in the staff.— No other changes than those detailed in paragraph 12 of last year's report occurred during the nine months that followed.

8. Public Examinations.—As these examinations took place in December 1901, the results though published in 1902 properly belong to 1901 and rightly therefore find a place in the current events of that year. They were, I am happy to say, satisfactory. In the English division of the B.A. we obtained 79·6 percentage of passes. In the second languages, Latin and Malayalam, respectively, four and ten out of an equal number sent up succeeded, with two first classes in Latin and one in Malayalam, while to the first class Malayalam student was, by the University, awarded the Kerala Varma Gold Medal. In Sanskrit 86 per cent. and in Tamil 90 per cent. passed. The Mathematics division obtained 80 per cent. of passes of the candidates and in Physical Science, Mental and Moral Science, and History, there passed 63 per cent., 72 per cent. and 77 per cent., respectively, one in Mental and Moral Science obtaining a first class. The F.A. worked up this year the creditable result of 79 per cent., with five in the first class; and even the Matriculates, notwithstanding the severity of the test scored 40·26 per cent. which is a long way above the average.

9. Hostels.—The hostel arrangements continue to be popular and the rooms are eagerly and rapidly taken at the beginning of each year so that we could largely increase our inmates if we only had rooms to give them or almirahs in which they could lodge their few moveables.

10. The Literary and Scientific Association numbered 38 members at the close of the year. Meetings took place regularly, at which essays were read or debates held with an occasional lecture from one of the Professors on such subjects, among others, as "Books and Reading", "The function of Poetry", and the Economic Constitution of India. A successful anniversary meeting was held on 16th August 1901, at which the Municipal Chairman was good enough to preside, and Mr. S. Sathyanathan of the Presidency College was so kind as to deliver a very instructive and interesting lecture on "Culture and Education."

11. Games.—At the close of the year there were twelve foot-ball teams, two cricket clubs, and a tennis club among the students. As I have stated before, the difficulty in Trichinopoly is suitable ground. There are no large "maidans" here as in Madras and most other places. For a game of cricket we have to go a good mile and a half and the nearest open space of any size at all for foot-ball is half a mile off. Nevertheless the enthusiasm students under these difficulties putinto these games is wonderful. Tennis players numbered 26 at the close of the year, but most of them were beginners. Matches at foot-ball have been played even with teams from Kumbakónam and Tanjore which were mostly drawn and one with the Lincoln Regiment at the Boer camp in which the Lincoln's gained an easy victory.

12. Museum.—There is nothing very special to be noted this year. A few additional specimens have been added and students continue frequently to visit it.

13. Library.—There are over 4,000 volumes and they are fairly well used by both teachers and pupils as may be seen from the tabular return.

Table 6.

1901	4,226	100	150	4,276	8,946	971	9,801	759

14. Technical classes.—The average number on the roll of these classes has been 61 with an average daily attendance of 50. Of these about 50 per cent. are Roman Catholics, 38 per cent. Brahmans and the remainder of other sections of the community. As regards the examination results of these classes about 60 per cent. of the number sent up have been successful and one came out first in Elementary Shorthand. We have twelve stipendiary students. Mr. Chatterton at his visit was pleased to say that these classes were efficiently managed and are the only classes in these subjects in the town of which it can be said that they are doing good work. The small library has been increased to the extent of Rs. 25 worth of books and Rs. 35 have been spent on fresh instruments for the Telegraphy class, but we found it impossible to get what we required in India, and the result has been that, in communication with and on the recommendation of Mr. Chatterton, we have since closed the Intermediate, Elementary Telegraphy classes, and continue only a signalling class to prepare young men for the South Indian Railway Telegraph.

15. Finance.—Table 8 has been made to correspond to the period of review and consequently the figures for 1900–1901 now given will not agree with the figures given last year for these years. In both years the transactions of nine additional months, April to December, have been added, while the corresponding transactions of April to December of the previous year have been taken away.

The apparent fall in general revenue from Rs. 11,505–2–6 to Rs. 11,060 is merely the consequence of the grant formerly passed to Rev. Fr. Morel who died in 1899 not having been drawn till the early part of 1900.

The totals of the fee columns do not show the same difference as in table of last year for reasons already referred to last year. It must be remembered in noticing the striking change in the relative figures against the Upper Primary and Lower Primary departments between last year's table as compared with that of this year that our non-Christian Primary departments were converted last year into a branch school, and that the Christians who are boarders have largely increased in numbers. Of the total charges for the year 1901, you will note that Rs. 53,980–2–5 belong to the College department, Rs. 23,873–12–6 and Rs. 4,501–10–1 to the Upper Primary and Lower Primary schools respectively and Rs. 823–8–1 to the Upper and Lower Primary classes. In other respects the explanation of difference afforded last year may be applied to this year, due respect being had to the change in the period embraced by the report.

The tone and discipline of the college and school continue to give satisfaction and the additional power over pupils afforded by the University affiliation rules is working well and more healthy relations between professors and pupils now exist than was the case in times now it is to be hoped gone for ever.

Proceedings, Dis. No. 3116 of 1903.

Recorded.

2. The results of the University examinations were very satisfactory and, except in the Physical Science and Mental and Moral Science branches of the B.A. Examination, were an improvement on those of the previous year.

3. The totals of the figures given in the statement in paragraph 5 of the report do not agree with those in the preceding paragraph, and in the financial table appended to paragraph 15 the figures under fees for 1901 and under other sources for both years do not make the totals shown below them. These discrepancies should be explained.

4. It is noted with pleasure that healthier relations now exist between professors and pupils and that the tone and discipline of the institution continue to be satisfactory.

5. The efficient administration of the institution reflects credit on the Principal and the staff.

2. The strength and the daily attendance had declined considerably during the year. This is to be regretted.

3. Judged from the percentage of passes to the number under instruction on the latest date for application, the results of the public examinations were not satisfactory. Neither did the pupils do very creditably at the inspection. Mathematics and English required more efficient teaching, and physical exercises continued to receive insufficient attention notwithstanding the remarks in the previous review. The Director trusts that better results will be reported next year.

4. Financially the school worked at a profit.

5. The tone and discipline of the school were good, but its general condition left room for improvement.

2. Most of the teachers were qualified by virtue of long service. The staff being undermanned, arrangements should be made to employ competent graduates to act for the two assistants deputed to other duty.

3. The strength showed a decline during the year, chiefly in the lower secondary department.

4. The results of the Matriculation examination, as also those of the inspections were hardly satisfactory. The attention of the Principal is invited to the defect, detailed on the last page of the report. The appointment of a writing master should no longer be delayed.

2. Professionally the staff is still unqualified. It is noted that three teachers are qualifying for teachers' certificates. The third assistant also should take early steps to complete his qualifications.

3. A suitable play-ground should be provided as early as possible.

4. The library is insufficient for the requirements of the school and should be improved.

5. Fair results were shown at the public examinations, but at the inspection the pupils did badly in English and Mathematics. Handwriting should receive more careful attention. The headmaster should be more strict in making promotions. It is no kindness to a pupil to promote him to a class for which he is not fit.

2. The first and second assistants will, it is hoped, soon succeed in completing their professional qualifications. The seventh assistant should qualify for a teachers' certificate. The appointment of a qualified drawing master and of an additional gymnastic instructor is noted.

3. There has been a marked increase in the strength of the school. This makes it all the more necessary that the accommodation which has for some time been unsatisfactory should be improved as soon as possible.

4. Steps should be taken to open a reading-room.

5. The school did fairly both at the public examinations and at the inspection. It is noted that there has been an improvement in drawing and gymnastics, but handwriting, translation and composition were still poor. Out-door games should be introduced and encouraged.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION, dated 17th November 1902.

St. Joseph's Girls' High School, Waltair.

Read inspection report of the Inspectress of Girls' Schools, Northern Circle, No. 1196, dated 28th April 1902.

Recorded.

2. It is noted that the first assistant has passed the practical test.

3. If the strength of the upper secondary department, which was only seven during the year under report, is not likely to improve, the question of continuing the department may well be considered.

4. The results of the public examinations and of the inspection were, on the whole, fair. At the latter the fourth form did poorly in important subjects. Handwriting and mathematics should receive more careful attention.

5. The tone and discipline of the school and its general condition were fair.

Dis. No. 2403.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION, dated 16th April 1903.

Vizianagram Maharaja's College.

READ—the following letter from M.R.Ry. K. RAMANUJACHARI Garu, M.A., B.L., Principal, Maharaja's College, Vizianagram, to the Director of Public Instruction, dated 24th September 1902, No. 319 :—

I have the honour to forward, herewith, a copy of my report on the college for the calendar year 1901.

ENCLOSURE.

From M.R.Ry. K. RAMANUJACHARI Garu, M.A., B.L., Principal, Maharaja's College, Vizianagram to the Collector and Guardian, Vizianagram Samastanam, dated 22nd September 1902, No. 317.

As the Director of Public Instruction wishes that the report should be for the calendar year, instead of the official, as is done in the case of Government colleges, I have the honour to submit the report on the college for the calendar year 1901.

Strength.—The number on the rolls on the 31st December 1901 was 58 against 57 on the corresponding date of the previous year. The present strength of the college is 88.

The following tables show :—

(1) The districts from which the boys were drawn into the college department.

(2) The distribution of pupils according to the optional subjects in the senior and junior divisions of the B.A. class on the 31st December 1901.

(3) The financial position of the institution.

Changes in the teaching staff.—Mr. K. Narasimham, a trained first-class mathematics graduate, was appointed an assistant in the college department in the place of Mr. R. Appalanarasimhan, B.A., whose term of service expired by the end of December 1900. Mr. H. H. Davis took leave for five months on half pay in continuation of the summer holidays and Mr. S. Ramayya, B.A., third assistant in the school department, was given his work.

Mr. O. P. Ramamurti, B.A., was appointed to act for Mr. S. Ramayya. As Mr. Y. Narayanamurti, third assistant in the school department, resigned his appointment in February, Mr. S. Ramayya was appointed in his place, and the last place that fell vacant in the high school department was given to Mr. K. Janakiram, B.A.

College examinations.—There were fourteen students in the junior B.A. class and fifteen in the junior F.A. at the time of the last annual examination. As the students of the junior B.A. did pretty fairly, they were all promoted to the senior class. Of the fifteen students in the junior F.A. class, only thirteen attended the annual examination and they were all promoted. The remaining two students were also promoted, as their progress during the previous year was satisfactory.

University and other examinations.—Thirteen appeared for the English language branch of the B.A. degree examination, of whom nine came out successful, three having been placed in the second class. One of these, T. Achyutaran, won the Macdonald Gold Medal for having got the highest number of marks in English among those who passed the English branch from all the affiliated first-grade colleges in the Northern Circars. Three appeared for mathematics and all of them came out successful, one having been placed in the second class and two in the third. Two appeared in chemistry and both of them came out successful, one having been placed in the first and the other in the third. G. Sambamurti, the student that was placed in the first class, stood first in the chemistry branch of the B.A. degree examination and was awarded the Jagirdar of Arni's Gold Medal. Six appeared in mental and moral science, of whom four came out successful, two having been placed in the second class and two in the third. Five appeared in Sanskrit, of whom four came out successful, three having been placed in the second class. Nine appeared in Telugu, of whom eight came out successful, two having been placed in the second class.

Nine appeared for the F.A., of whom seven came out successful, two having been placed in the first class.

Thirty-nine appeared for the Matriculation examination, of whom nineteen came out successful.

Thirty-nine appeared for the Lower Secondary examination, of whom thirty came out successful, two having been placed in the first class.

The figures for the college do not tally with those given in the report of the Syndicate, as some ex-students that appeared for the University examinations were also credited to the college.

The following is the analysis of the failures in the Matriculation and F.A. examinations:—

Scholarships.—The Chandrasekhara Sastry scholarships, tenable for one year each in the junior and senior sections of the B.A. class, were awarded to M. Suryanarayana and D. V. Kristnamraju, respectively. The Mandasa scholarship was awarded to M. Satyanarayana of the senior B.A. class.

Medal.—Y. S. Narayana, who got the highest number of marks in physiology in the final examination of the senior F.A. class last year, was awarded the Quinn Gold Medal.

College Library.—Forty-four volumes were added to the college library during the calendar year 1901. Three hundred and ten volumes were taken from the library by teachers and 1,863 by students, the latter including those taken by the students of the high school department.

College Reading-room.—The college reading-room was furnished with English and Indian periodicals at a cost of Rs. 191–11–0. The cost of this was, as usual, borne by the teachers and students of this institution with the exception of that of the 19th century and the fortnightly review, which were supplied by the Samastanam.

Physical exercise.—With regard to physical exercise I am glad to be able to state that almost every student in the school department has exercise every evening; some have gymnastics and the rest are divided between drill and dumb-bells. This has become possible owing to the appointment of a retired hawaldar as drill master. As for the students of the college department, most of them play every evening either cricket, tennis or badminton.

Debating society.—The debating society was working satisfactorily throughout the year. Some of the papers read by students were well written and showed more than average ability and research.

In conclusion, I beg to thank my assistants for the cordial manner in which they co-operated with me in carrying on the work of the institution during the year under review.

Proceedings, Dis. No. 2403 of 1903.

Recorded.

2. The results of the public examinations were an improvement on those of the previous year, and it is satisfactory that the efficiency of the institution continued to be maintained.

3. It is noted that increased attention is being paid to the physical education of the students.

4. No reference has been made in the report to the question of the establishment of a hostel in connection with the college, which was so strongly urged by the Principal in his report for the previous year. It is hoped the matter will not be lost sight of.

2. The uncertificated assistants should qualify professionally at the earliest opportunity.

The copies of Reviews submitted with the foregoing Letter show that there has been very great delay in issuing the Director's remarks on School & College Inspection Reports. These rems must lose in value by being communicated to the Managers concerned more than six months after the date of the Inspection, & with suitable arrangements such delays are certainly avoidable. The Govt relies on the Director to see that their occurre
