EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

C. No. 1476 From the P.W.D.

No. 2295 Dated 15-9-1903.

SUBJECT.

Application for a bit of ground belonging to the Compound of the Uunda Bagh.

The Military department wishes to have a small portion of the compound of the Uunda Bagh coloured red in the enclosed sketch for the extension of the Army Clothing factory. If this cannot be given a strip B to C 60 feet broad would be acceptable.

2. In February last the Commr. of Police applied for a piece at the South east corner but the Govt. refused to give it chiefly on the ground that it was a sort of trust property - vide G.O. No. 405 Jd of 20th March 1903. That bit however was in a prominent corner of the Compound and was required for a boarding house. The portion now applied for is almost at the back end is much smaller. If however encroachments by other departments are allowed there may be ~~other~~ applications and the objection that it is a sort of trust property still holds good.

We cannot ~~give~~ or rather should not give away any ~~thing~~ part of the ground.
